STAR TALK

By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

Shawn Michaels and his teacher, former wrestling great Jose Lothario, offer thanks at the Slammy Awards.

We would like to welcome everyone to another edition of Wrestling All Stars. Since our last issue Diesel, Razor Ramon and the Million Dollar Man have left the WWF and are headed for WCW. In fact, Razor already has appeared on a Monday Night Nitro telecast. Razor came on the program unannounced and after grabbing the microphone he demanded to see "Billionaire Ted", "The Nacho Man" and "Scheme Gene." As everyone knows, these were the characters that were spoofed on the WWF Raw telecasts. After this, Razor challenged everyone in WCW and said that "we are going to take over WCW." The way Razor's interview played out it looked like he was sent by the WWF to wipe out WCW. Actually, the segment was tremendous! I am sure that quite a few fans thought that they had mistakenly hit the remote control and had accidentally changed the channel from TNT to USA and were now watching Monday Night Raw! With Ramon in the fold and Diesel and the Million Dollar Man to follow, WCW is poised and ready to take over the WWF's fan base. In addition to these three superstars, rumor has it that the British Bulldog, Owen Hart and Yokozuna are also WCW bound! Actually there have been quite a few different names bantered about and it's going to be interesting to see what happens in the next few months. In June, WCW will be in Hartford, CT., Philadelphia, PA., and at the Theater adjacent to Madison Square Garden. When this tour is complete, the WWF may find itself in a battle for supremacy in the East Coast. It's going to be very interesting to see how well WCW draws when it comes East this June.

While WCW continues to stockpile talent the WWF does not appear to be hurting in the least. In fact, attendance at all of the WWF house shows has increased tremendously in the past year. This is due in part to new champion, Shawn Michaels as well as the return of the Ultimate Warrior. Once you also add Vader, Goldust, ManKind and the Undertaker to a card one can see why attendance has increased of late.

On June 1, Flyin' Brian Pillman appeared in an ECW card in Philadelphia. Although he was still in his wheelchair, Brian is confident that he will return to the ring shortly. Brian said that the screw and the brace will be removed from his leg in a month, and then after a month of rehabilitation, Brian intends to be back inside the ring. Everyone at Wrestling All Stars wishes Brian the best.

USA promoter Tommy Dee recently had his twelfth annual Vince McMahon Sr. Memorial card. At the show, Bam Bam Bigelow was crowned USA champion after winning a tournament and a new team called the East Village People defeated Sir Christopher Michaels and Johnny Handsome to win the USA tag team title.

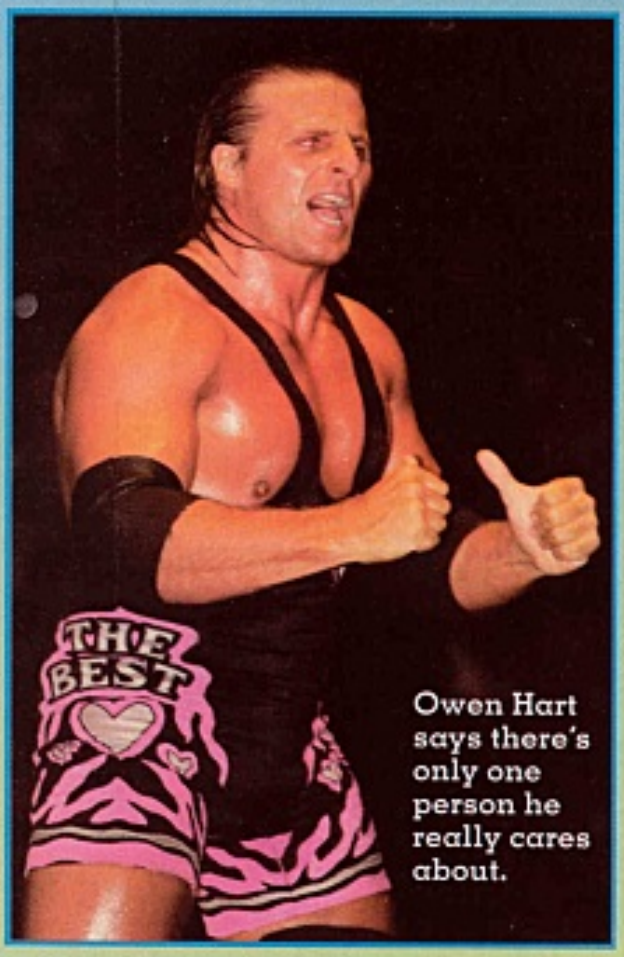
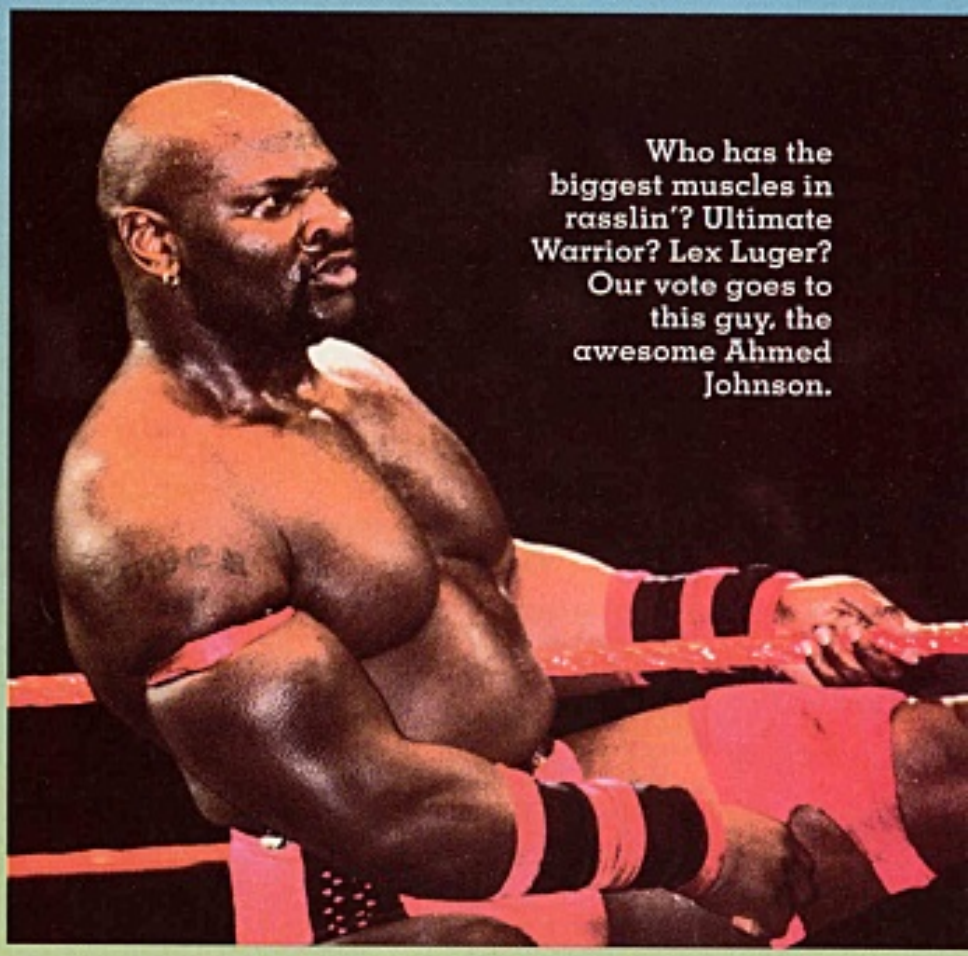
Miss Patricia, AKA the Brooklyn Babe, has been very busy. The Babe is now managing the Blue Meanie in ECW and is Jeff Jarrett's personal secretary in USWA.

The AWA is back in business! Yes, the original American Wrestling Association with Verne Gagne at the helm, has re-formed and will begin promoting cards once again in Minnesota and surrounding areas this summer.

UFC competitor, Paul Varelans has signed a contract to wrestle with ECW. Varelans came out of the crowd at the ECW arena after Taz issued a challenge to everyone in the building. After Varelans climbed over the barriers, he had to be restrained several times from going after Taz. Although Varelans has done well in UFC with a little experience he could become a wrestling superstar.



Owen Hart says there's only one person he really cares about.



Who has the biggest muscles in rasslin'? Ultimate Warrior? Lex Luger? Our vote goes to this guy, the awesome Ahmed Johnson.

Former Pittsburgh Steeler and current Carolina Cougar Kevin Green will team with Nitro announcer and former Chicago Bear, Steve McMichael, at the Great American Bash in Baltimore. Their opponents will be Ric Flair and Arn Anderson. Last year McMichael was in L.T.'s corner, where he wrestled Bam Bam Bigelow at Wrestlemania and ever since he's been dying to get into the ring. Now that he has the chance, many are hoping he will retire from announcing!

After a spectacular return, the Road Warriors have quit WCW. Don't be surprised if Hawk and Animal wind up back in the WWF.

Pit Bull #2 defeated Shane Douglas to win the ECW TV title. Douglas must have thought that the Pit Bull was going to be a real pushover as he had wrestled twice earlier in the evening, but the Pit Bull surprised everyone in the building when he pinned Douglas's shoulders to the mat.

Missy, Beulah, Kimono and the rest of the ECW lady contingent better be careful because there is a new girl on the scene. Stevie Richards searched all over the U.S. to find a girl for Raven that could take the place of Kimono. Finally, after an exhausting

The recent feud between the Godwinns and the Body Donnas has been like a soap opera. For more, see our story on page 60.

Stevie Richards tried to fix Raven up with Divine Brown, the hooker in the Hugh Grant scandal, but Raven rejected her, saying she just wasn't a big enough of a slut for him.

search, Stevie found what he thought was the perfect mate, the one and only Divine Brown, Hugh Grant's LA woman. After giving Divine the once over, however, Raven turned her down. His reason was simple. She was not sleazy enough for him! This, however, didn't stop Stevie as he flipped over Divine. After sweet talking her all night, the two were spotted leaving the ECW arena arm in arm. The two love birds headed straight for his car which was parked in the rat infested lot in back of the ECW arena. Unfortunately, the lovers never reached their ultimate destination as Stevie's car was blocked by some fool who parked his van in the middle of the street. While the head of security and others tried in vain to get the Pennsylvania police to come and remove the van, Stevie and his lady friend got better acquainted in the back seat of his car right there in the glass strewed, rat infested, filthy, dirty, smelly alley way. And, needless to say, the Pennsylvania police never saw a thing! Hugh, next time you want to pick up a lady of the evening, take her to the back lot behind the ECW arena. Stevie can vouch that you won't find any cops there!

The next UFC match will take place on July 12 in Providence, Rhode Island. On the last card Dan Severn won by decision (some say a hometown decision) over his former nemesis, Ken Shamrock. With his victory over Shamrock, Severn's reputation has increased tremendously in Japan.

The L.A. World Peace Festival was a huge success. Although the crowd wasn't as big as originally expected, the matches were superb! Thanks have to go to Antonio Inoki and Steve Nakada for a job well done. We will have a complete rundown of this card in our next issue.

We would like to remind everyone that the next East Coast Cauliflower Alley reunion will take place on Oct. 5 at the Holiday Inn Jetport at Newark Airport. Last year's affair was a huge success and this one should be just as enjoyable. Honorees will be "Superfly" Jimmy Snuka, Johnny Valiant, Ted DiBiase and George Steele. More names will be added in the coming weeks. Tickets to the dinner are $45 and you can obtain yours by writing to CAC, 5221 Sierra Villa Drive, Los Angeles CA. 90041. For further information you can call the club at (213) 255-2709.

Have we seen the last of Hulk Hogan in WCW? Right now Hogan and WCW are trying to work out a new contract, but so far both sides are very far apart. Meanwhile, Hogan has been keeping himself busy by filming a new movie. His co-star in the film is none other than former WWF president Roddy Piper! Will the ex-president somehow lure the mighty Hulkster back to the WWF? Don't count it out! Stranger things have happened in the wild and wacky world of professional wrestling.

That's all for this issue. See you at ringside. ★

Bill, the #1 dealer of memorabilia in the world (second from right), is joined by USA wrestlers Doug Dollars, Typhoon and the Bodyguard for Hire.

"WHAT ABOUT TAZ!"

Cries Bill Alfonso

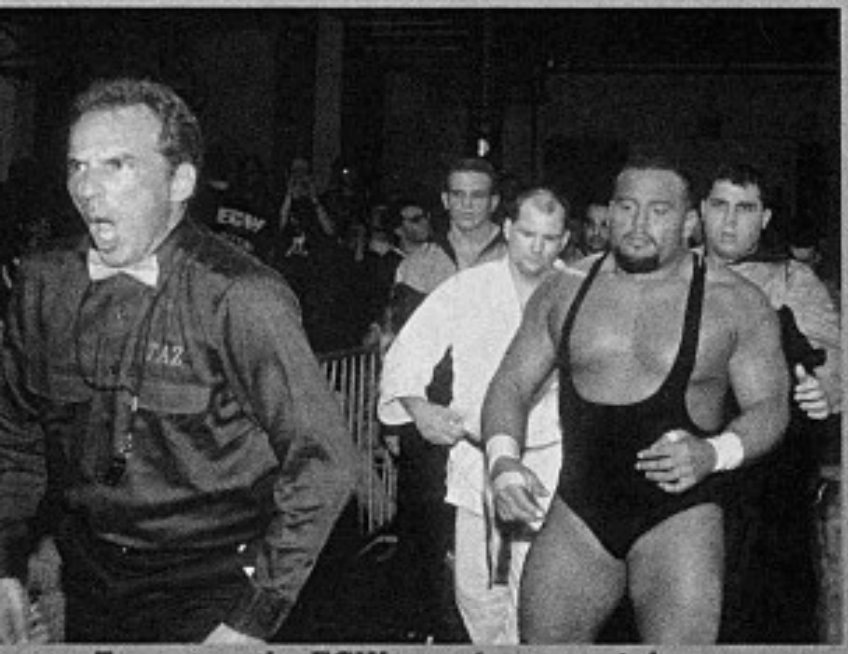
By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

Taz has been the most overlooked man in ECW and his manager, Bill Alfonso, has vowed to rectify this situation now.

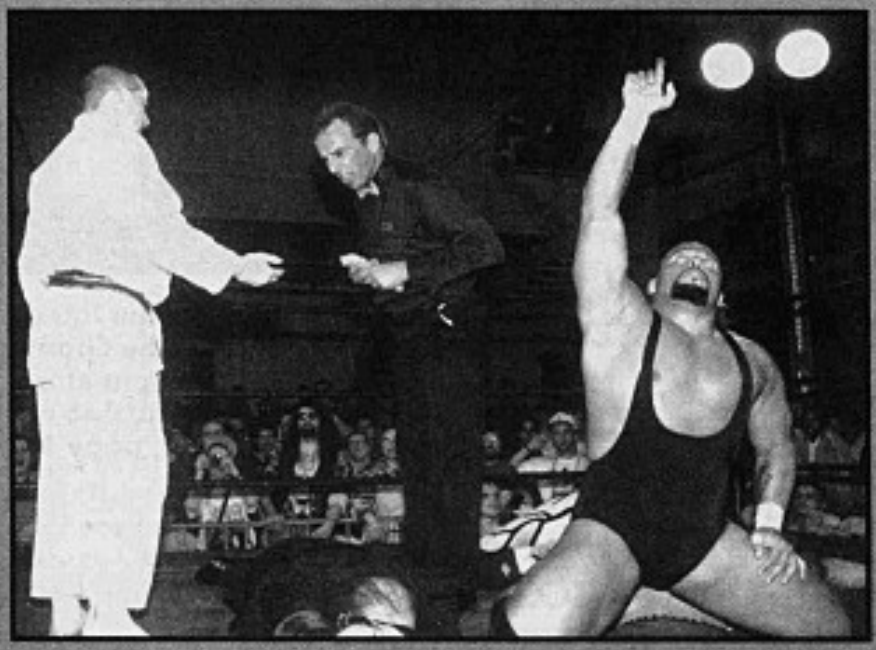
"What about Taz?" This has been Bill Alfonso's lament for the past six months. Actually, Alfonso may have some merit in what he says as his man Taz, the Human Suplex Machine, has been constantly passed over when championship bouts have been signed for as long as anyone can remember.

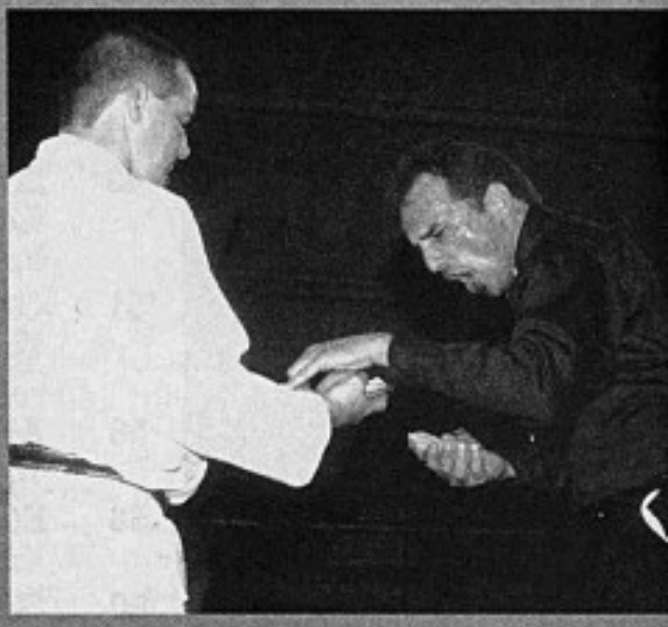
Actually Taz has held the ECW tag team title on two different occasions: with Kevin Sullivan in March of 1994 and Sabu in February 1995, but from this it's plain to see that Taz has not held a title in ECW in over a year and a half! Considering how many different men have worn either the TV belt, the heavyweight belt or the tag team belt in this time, one has to wonder whether there really has been a conspiracy against Taz all this time.

"My man is the roughest, toughest, strongest, smartest man in ECW, but he just doesn't get any respect whatsoever around this stinking place," bellowed Taz's manager, Bill Alfonso. "Hey, what does a man have to do around here to get recognition? We've destroyed everyone in ECW, yet my man Taz



Taz enters the ECW area for a special "shoot fight."





It's easier to win a match when your manager (Bill Alfonzo) pays off the ref.

Bill Alfonzo blows his annoying whistle in front of recent graduates of Taz's wrestling school.

ECW commissioner Tod Gordon and Bill Alfonzo, mortal enemies, sit at ringside, handcuffed together.

Alfonzo lays out Jericho with a chair!

still has not gotten a title shot against any of the so-called champions around here. Are they scared of him? You bet! That's the problem, and I am certain that boss man, Tod Gordon, is behind it. He hates me with a passion, and because of this he's keeping Taz away from the championship picture. The people that run this stinking company are afraid that when Taz wins the belt they will lose control, and, you know what, they are right! Soon the title will be ours and when I get my hands on the championship, then I will call all the shots. Tod Gordon and the rest of his flunkies are afraid of this, but there is nothing that they can do about it because it's only a matter of time before me and my Human Suplex Machine take control of the ECW."

Bill Alfonso certainly has very big plans, but the loquacious ex-referee turned manager makes a very strong argument in his favor. Taz has wrestled in ECW since its inception, and in this time men such as the Sandman, Tommy Dreamer, Mikey Whipwreck and even Stevie Richards have been pushed ahead of him. Yet neither of these men had the credentials to warrant their big push, but received one nevertheless. If this had happened to you, wouldn't you be upset? That's why Taz is steaming.

In an effort to rectify the situation, after every one of his matches Taz has made an open challenge to anyone and everyone in hopes of finding a suitable opponent. But usually Taz's challenges have fallen on deaf ears. Recently, however, after easily defeating yet another pushover on an ECW card, Taz went into his usual tirade. After belittling everyone in the crowd, UFC competitor Paul Varelans, who was in Philadelphia to see for himself what ECW was all about, took exception to Taz's comments and made his way to the ringside barrier. Seeing Varelans, Taz couldn't believe his eyes! He looked even bigger in person than he had on the UFC contests. Yet, as big as Varelans is, Taz didn't back down for a second. He taunted him unmercifully! Finally Varelans tried to climb over the barrier. As he did, several ECW security guards tried to restrain him, but it wasn't easy. After Varelans made it over the barrier, he tried to jump into the ring. But Varelans never made it as he was pushed back down by six security guards. Seven different times Varelans tried to run into the ring to get his hands on Taz but each time he was rebuked. Taz, meanwhile, held his ground standing safely inside the ring and away from Varelans clutches.

Taz and Alfonzo routinely challenge anyone in the arena after a victory, but this time they bit off more than they could chew. The man who took up the challenge was Ultimate Fight superstar Paul Varelans!

Maybe this time Taz has finally gotten more than he bargained for. If Paul Varelans decides to enter ECW, then Taz better be very careful. If Taz can somehow get by Varelans, then he could really call himself the toughest man in ECW. But until that time we will just have to continue to hear Bill Alfonso scream, "What about Taz!" ★

Taz, taken aback by the size of the challenger, backed down, and security had to pull the infuriated Varelans away.

WWF sells out

MADISON SQUARE GA

Vader destroyed Yokozuna in a battle of the behemoths.

At one time a sellout at Madison Square Garden to see the WWF in action was a monthly occurrence. From the late sixties during Bruno Sammartino's reign through the championship reigns of Pedro Morales, Bruno, Superstar Bill Graham, Bob Backlund and Hulk Hogan, the Garden sold out all the time.

But, with the onslaught of pay-per-view, crowds at Madison Square Garden and other arenas began to dwindle. The reasons for this were many, but quite a few fans figured that it was easier and cheaper to stay at home and watch the bouts on TV than to travel long distances to see the matches live. With this kind of thinking, the Garden crowds began to shrink and shrink. From a monthly crowd of 21,000 fans MSG began to attract no more than 8,000 diehards four times a year. The low point came three years ago when only 3,000 fans turned out to see the WWF live at MSG. Old timers shuddered when they learned of the poor turn out at the Garden. Eventually the fans began to return, but it was a slow, slow process.

In the last two years, however, you could sense that the crowds were beginning to increase. When 1996 began the WWF was confident that this would be the year the wrestling returned big time to MSG. And they were prophetic as 14,000 screaming fans turned out to see the bouts on a Saturday afternoon in March! Then, on May 19, the WWF hit a "home run" when more than 18,000 fans were on hand to see the matches. This was the first time since Wrestlemania X that the building was sold out. (With the new Garden configuration there are only 18,000 seats for general sale)

Prior to this, it had been more than five years since MSG had last registered a complete sellout. The way things look MSG could be a "sell out" from now on.

Actually, in the past couple of months, the crowds at all of the arenas throughout the country have increased tremendously. In fact, wrestling has undergone a renaissance of sorts with huge crowds reported all over the world. What has caused this renewed interest in the WWF? Is it new champion Shawn Michaels that has excited the fans? Is it the freaky Goldust that has incensed the audience? Maybe it's the awesome Vader that has the people up in arms? Or perhaps it's the return of the Ultimate Warrior that has the fans coming through the turnstiles?

Actually, it is a combination of all of these things. But most of all the fans have rediscovered that there is nothing like being in an arena and seeing the bouts live. Seeing the matches in person is so much more enjoyable than watching the bouts in front of your TV. Sure you can yell at your TV screen, but until we have interactive TV sets, the person who you are screaming at can't hear you—nor yell back at you.

The way thing are going, 1996 could be a very big year for both the WWF and WCW. Both groups have experienced a resurgence in popularity and one could expect to see many more big shows and sell outs throughout the year.

The following are the results of the sold out MSG card:

Justin Bradshaw defeated Bob Holly.

The Bushwhackers defeated the New Rockers.

Stone Cold Steve Austin pinned Jake Roberts

Savio Vega defeated Bob Backlund.

Ahmed Johnson won by DQ over the British Bulldog when Owen Hart interfered.

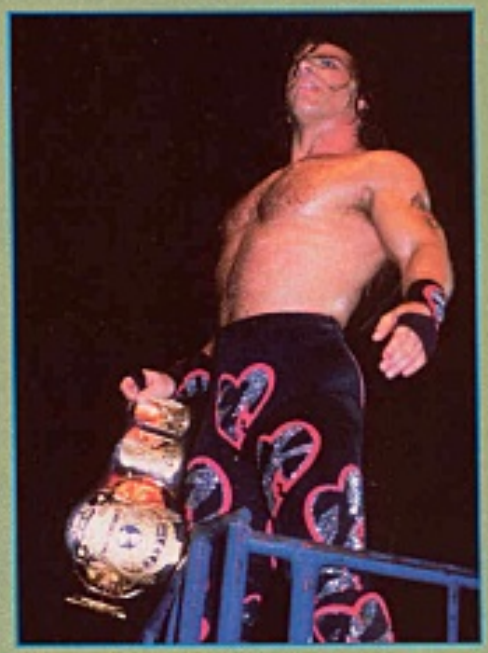
Vader pinned Yokozuna.

The Ultimate Warrior pinned Owen Hart.

Hunter Hearst Helmsley defeated Razor Ramon.

Shawn Michaels defeated Diesel in a Steel Cage match.

In a surprise ending, when the cage match was over, Razor Ramon and Hunter Hearst Helmsley entered the ring and shook hands with Diesel and Shawn Michaels. All four men then paraded around the ring holding their arms up high. Incidentally, this was the last WWF appearance for Ramon and Diesel (a story on his last battle against Michaels can be found on page 27) as both are headed to WCW. With this send off, expect both Diesel and Ramon to return to the WWF when their contract with WCW expires. ★



Shawn Michaels successfully defended his WWF World Heavyweight Championship by defeating Diesel in a cage match. (For more on this match, see our story starting on page 27.)

"BACK TO THE EXTREME WEEKEND"

1996

Don't miss out. Make your plans today.

By JOSEPH NAPOLITANO

On Friday, August 2, and Saturday, August 3, ECW will host the second annual "Back to the Extreme" weekend. On Friday evening those attending the "Extreme Weekend" will get to see ECW live at the LuLu Temple and round-trip bus transportation to the bouts will be provided from the Days Inn in Philadelphia. On Saturday, at the Guest Quarters, there will be a Question and Answer session followed by photo and autograph opportunities with many of the ECW stars in attendance. Afterwards, it's off to the ECW Arena and what should be a wild night of action at the ECW Arena.

If you have yet to see ECW live, this would be a great opportunity to meet many of the stars that you have been seeing on TV and reading about on the pages of Wrestling All Stars magazine. This weekend is sponsored by Prodigy, and for Internet freaks this would be a excellent chance to meet many of the Prodigy regulars that frequent the chat room and post information on the Bulletin Board.

As you read this there should be only a few days left before the "Back to the Extreme Weekend". If you plan to spend the weekend in Philadelphia, call the Days Inn now and reserve your room. For Internet users you can obtain up-to-the-minute information on the big event via email at MrECW@aol.com or YBMQ30B@prodigy.com.

If you have the chance, you should do whatever you can to make it to Philadelphia. "Back To The Extreme-'96" should be the event of the Summer!

CONNY (19) gives her experienced opponent SABINE a very tough battle throughout, with very effective holds. Two novices: TINI (25) and rival SONNI (30) fight it out on the mat. Older sister HANNI and her younger CAROLA battle for the victory but a solid draw ends the wild tussle. The Two "seniors" LISSY and HANNI (45/36) prove that they can at least be as aggressive as their younger competitors. Their match is hard fought and full of fantastic action. Finally, KARIN accepts the challenge of a guest from Frankfurt, SUSI. The experienced blonde uses very effective tactics and squeezes her rival with powerful leg–scissors but falls victim to a suddenly executed controlling hold.

The Life And Times of

RAY STEVENS

By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

On May 3, 1996, the sport lost one of its true superstars when Ray Stevens died in his sleep from a massive heart attack. In 1995 Ray had quadruple bypass heart surgery, but this still didn't slow him down one bit as he continued to live life to the fullest until the day he died.

Ray was born on September 5, 1935, in Point Pleasant, West Virginia and began his professional wrestling career at the age of 15. He wrestled in four decades; the fifties, sixties, seventies and eighties, and he was a headliner throughout his entire career.

In his illustrious career, Ray wrestled the world over and won scores of titles, awards and accolades everywhere he appeared. With his patented "Bombs Away" leap off the top rope, no one was spared from Ray's wrath.

Everyone who ever saw Ray wrestle can vividly recall a Ray Stevens incident that has been forever etched in their mind. West Coast fans will always remember Ray Stevens for the feuds and wars which he waged with Pat Patterson and Pepper Gomez among others in the sixties. At that time, having Ray Stevens in the Main Event guaranteed a sellout. After settling his differences with Pat Patterson, "the Blonde Bombers," as they were affectionately referred to, were the toast of the West Coast.

In the seventies, Ray moved his base of operations to the AWA and once again he was a sensation. This time around "the Crippler" teamed with Nick Bockwinkel and this awesome duo captured the AWA tag team title on three different occasions. In 1978, Ray again hooked up with his longtime San Francisco buddy, Pat Patterson, and the two villains tore the AWA apart with their wild moves and wrestling savvy. The Stevens-Patterson partnership continued into the mid-eighties when they regularly wrestled the Road Warriors for the AWA tag team title.

"Bombs Away" Ray Stevens looks for someone to crush.

In the eighties, Ray left his mark in both the NWA Mid Atlantic area as well as the WWF. In the WWF, Ray feuded with "Superfly" Jimmy Snuka, and the Stevens-Snuka feud sold out many an arena throughout the Northeast.

At 5'8", 225 pounds, Ray Stevens was not the biggest man in any of the territories in which he worked, but he was definitely the roughest and toughest man around. In addition to this, Ray had that same kind of ring savvy and presence that Ric Flair possesses. In fact, Flair credits Ray for teaching him and inspiring him to greatness.

Ray Stevens was an originator and innovator inside the ring and an inspiration and true friend to all that he meet outside. Ray, we're gonna miss you! ★

For four decades, Stevens was at the top of the sport.

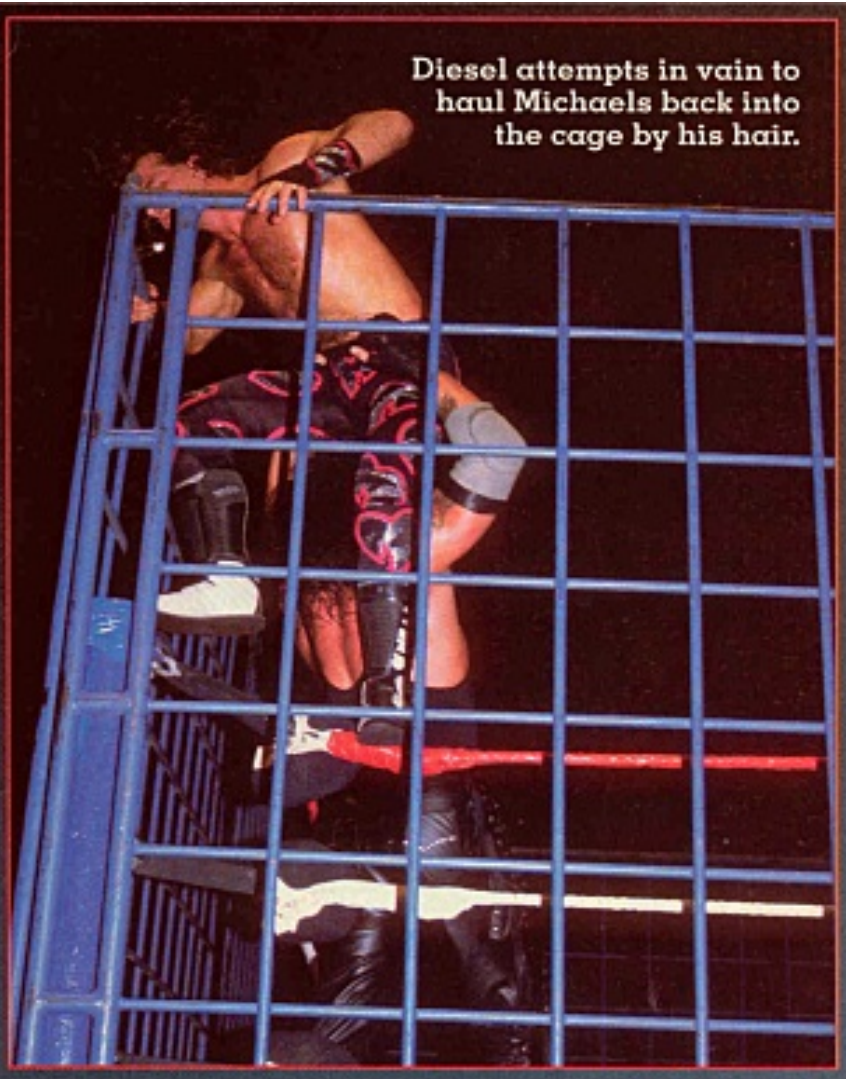
DIESEL VS MICHAELS IN A CAGE!

Diesel and Michaels spent much of the match battling high above the ring.

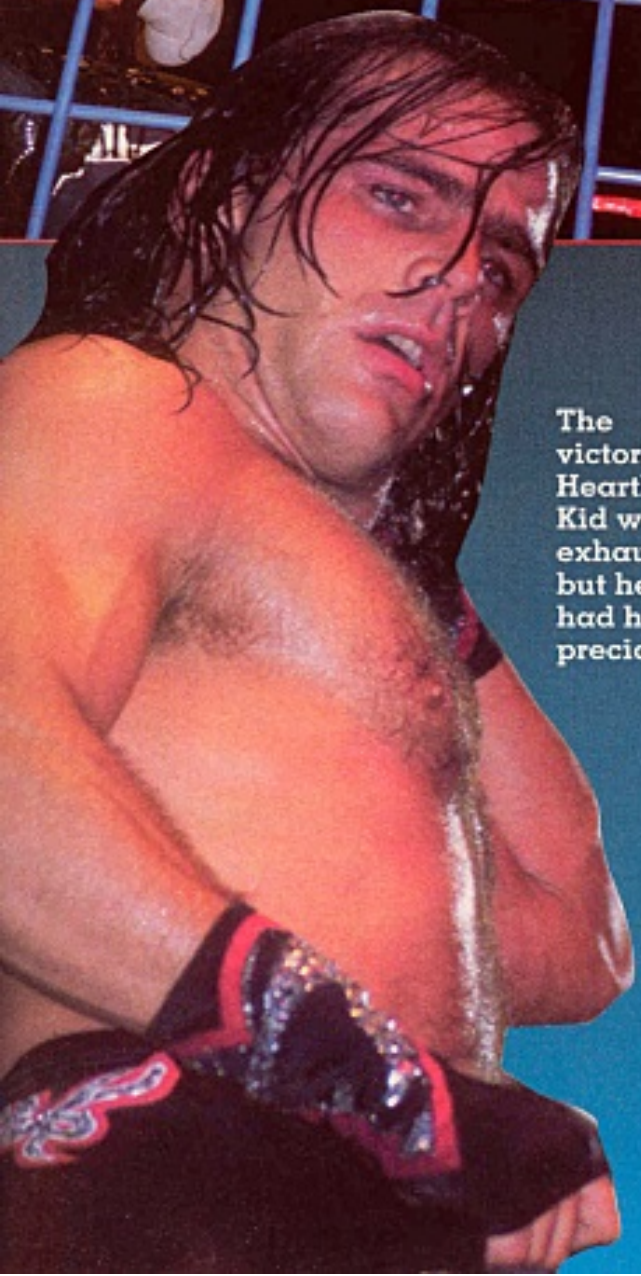
Diesel's farewell to the WWF was a spectacular one—even if he did wind up the loser of the match.

Big Daddy Cool made an early attempt to climb out of the ring, but Michaels pulled his butt back down to Earth.

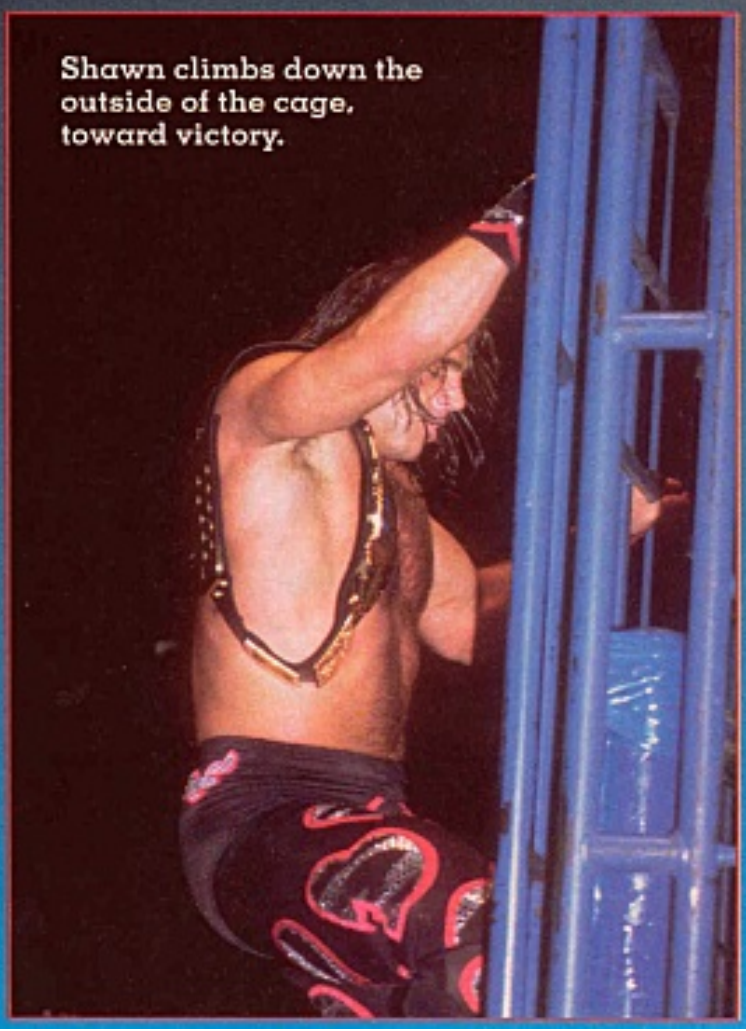
Michaels stuns Diesel long enough to get over the top



Diesel attempts in vain to haul Michaels back into the cage by his hair.



The victorious Heartbreak Kid was exhausted—but he still had his precious belt.



Shawn climbs down the outside of the cage, toward victory.

Following the Michaels vs Diesel match, the combatants were joined in the ring by Hunter Hearst Helmsley and Razor Ramon. With Ramon and Diesel headed for WCW, this meant the end of "The Clique."

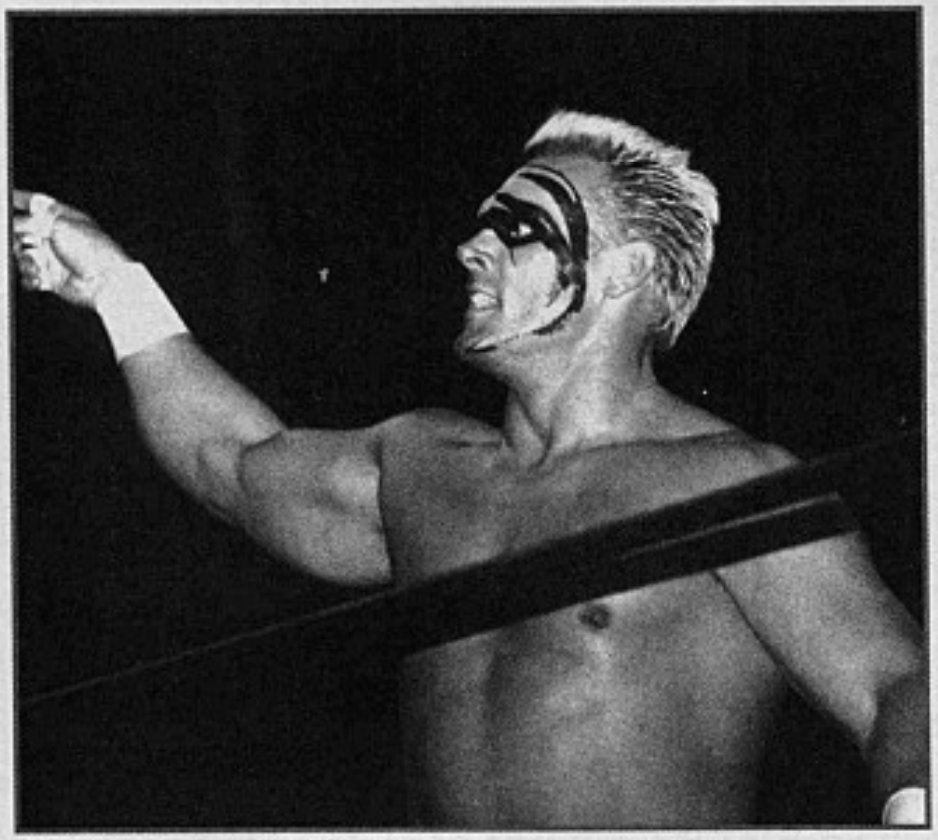
ALL STAR MAILBAG

One reader would like to see Sunny, along with her two Slammy Awards, get slopped by the Godwinns.



Will Sting win a belt in the upcoming year?

HOORAY FOR TENTA

Dear ALL STARS:

He's not Earthquake, he's not Avalanche, he not The Shark. He's John Tenta, and he is going to kick some serious butt in World Championship Wrestling. I'm sorry that it took a thing like getting a brutal haircut at the hands of Big Bubba to do it, but I am glad that John Tenta has decided to throw away the gimmicks and let his natural self, size and ability do the talking for him.

Tom Samoluk

WELCOME BACK, R&R EXPRESS!

Dear ALL STARS:

It's great to have Ricky Morton and Robert Gibson back on national TV. I didn't realize just how much I missed them until I saw them making their WCW Monday Nitro debut wrestling against Ric Flair and Arn Anderson. Needless to say, the Rock and Roll Express didn't have to start at the bottom and work their way up! (I know the R&R boys lost the match, but they would have won if Woman hadn't cheated and raked Ricky's eyes!)

MANKIND'S MISSING PART

Dear ALL STARS:

How did ManKind lose the top half of his right ear?

Andy Cooper
Dallas, Texas

(ManKind, who then wrestled as Cactus Jack, lost his entire right ear while wrestling Vader in Europe a few years back.

Will Miss Patricia get together with the Blue Meanie and make a lot of little Smurfs?

ManKind's head became caught between the ropes and his ear was torn off. Doctors later managed to reattach the bottom half of the ear.)

TOP TEN

Dear ALL STARS:

Here are the ten things I would most like to see happen in wrestling in the next year:

1) The Godwinns slop Sunny.

2) Macho Man finally get his hands on Elizabeth.

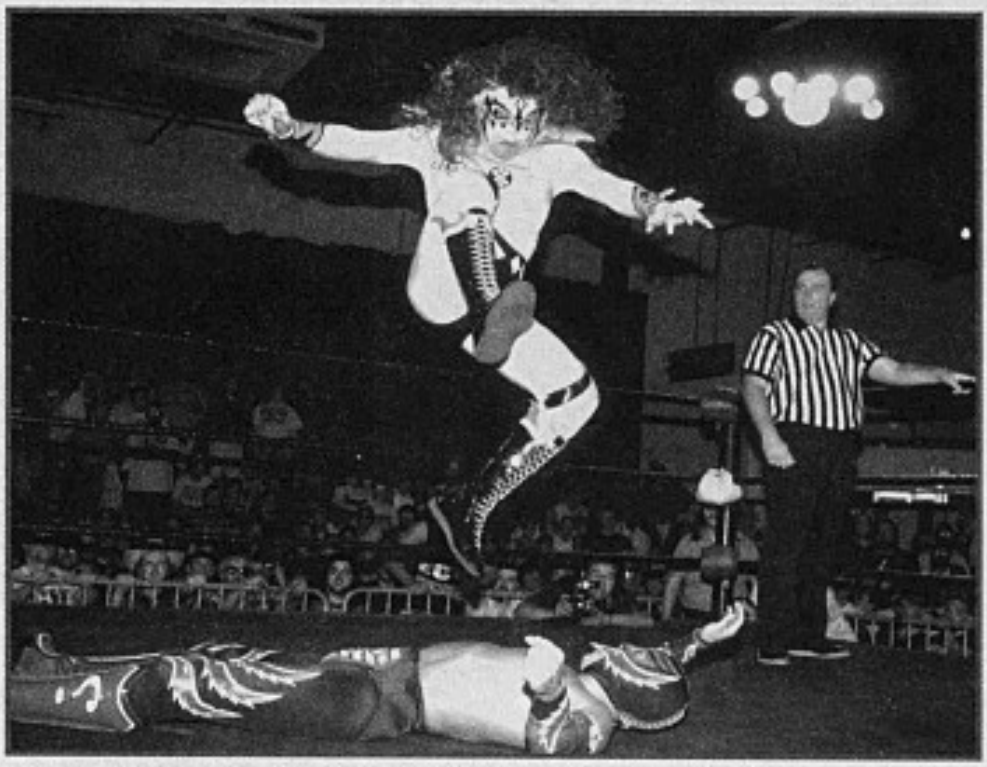
3) Bill Alphonzo accidentally swallow his whistle.

4) Yokozuna get to a healthy weight—and be better than ever in the ring.

5) Sting beat The Giant and win the belt he deserves.

6) Sister Sherri find peace of mind.

7) Brian Pillman successfully



Wanted: More Lucha Libre NORTH of the border!

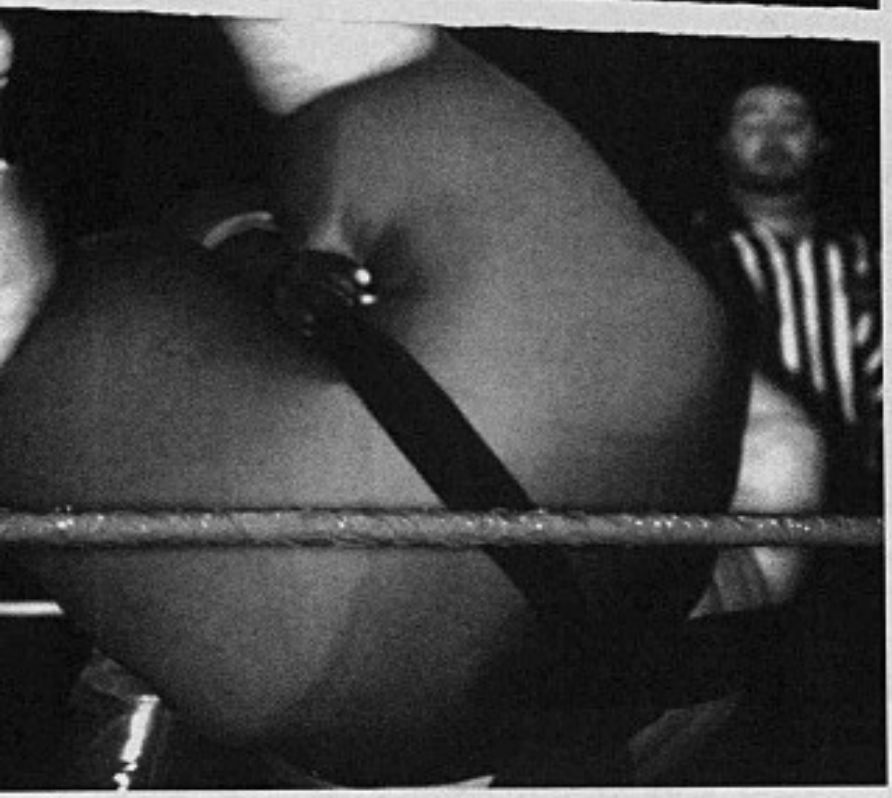
recover from his serious off-road vehicle accident.

8) Raven crack a smile.

9) More Lucha Libre in the United States.

10) Blue Meanie & Miss Patricia marry in the ring, then go on to have a lot of little Smurfs.

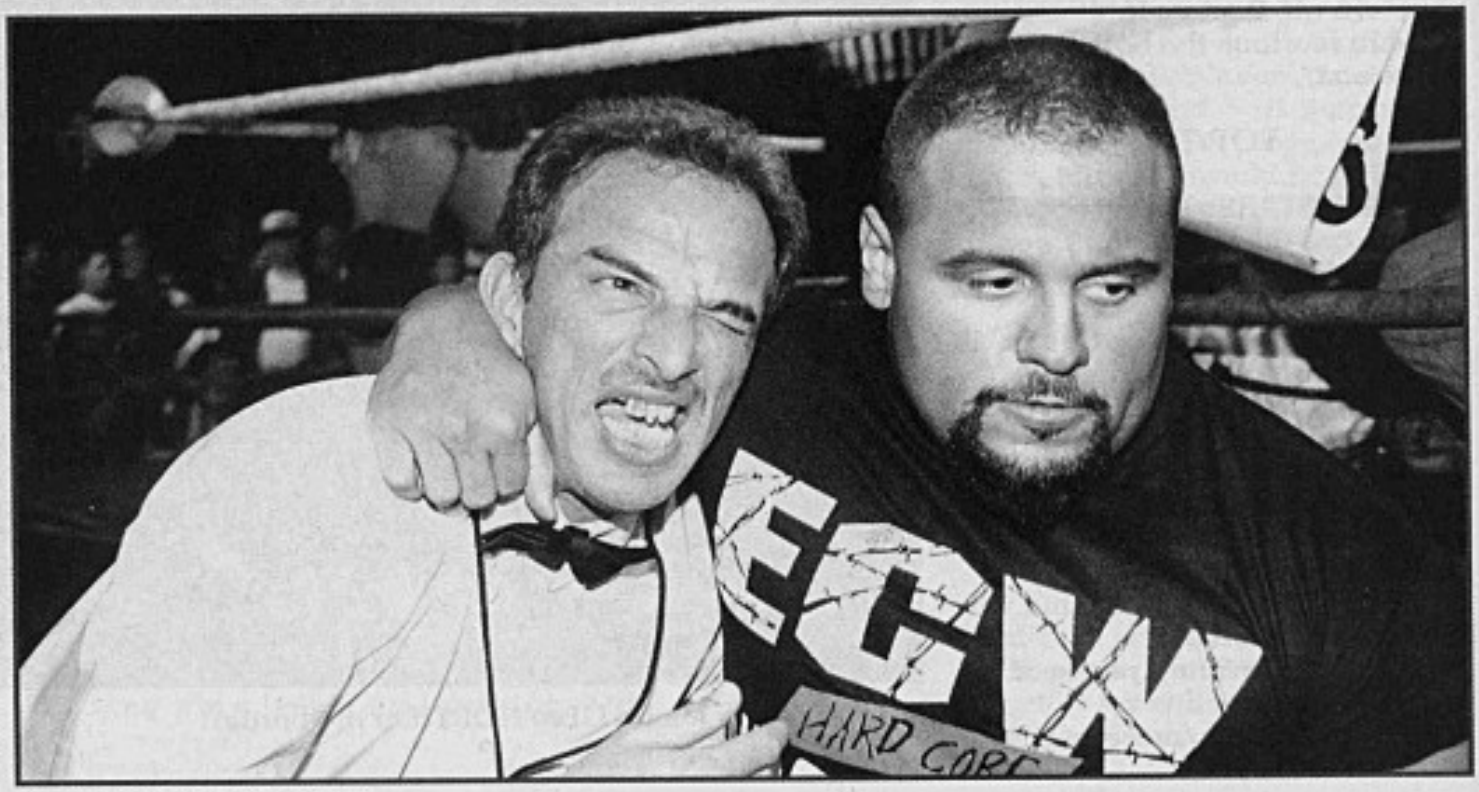
Randy Cummings
Bradford, PA



Can Yokozuna get down to a healthy weight without sacrificing his effectiveness in the ring?

Will Raven ever smile?

Bill Alphonso should swallow that annoying whistle!



What's up with

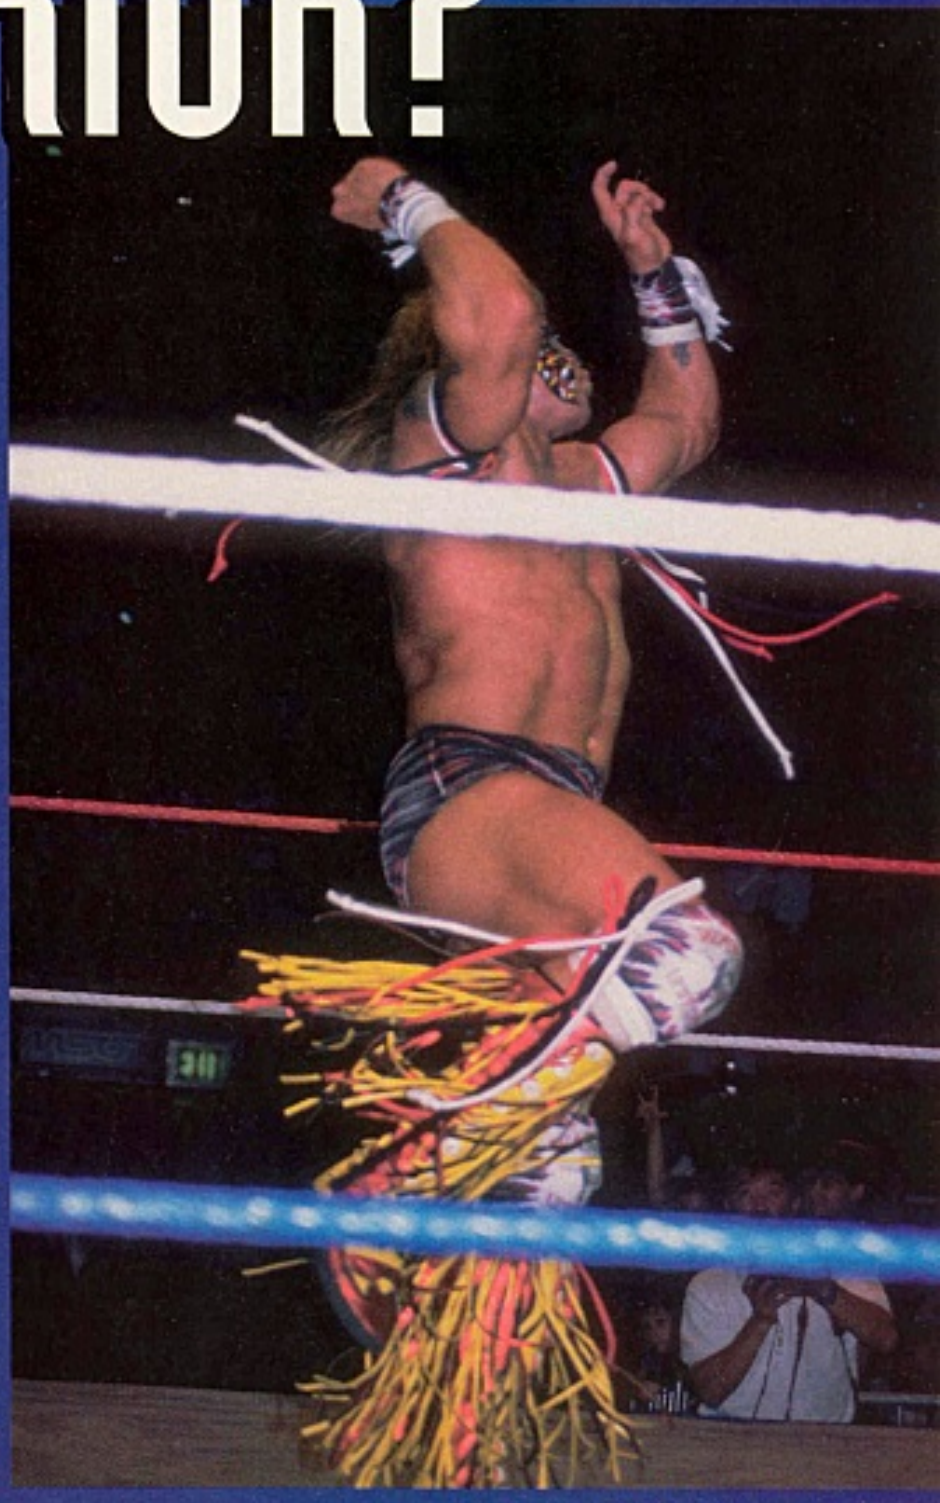
THE ULTIMATE WARRIOR?

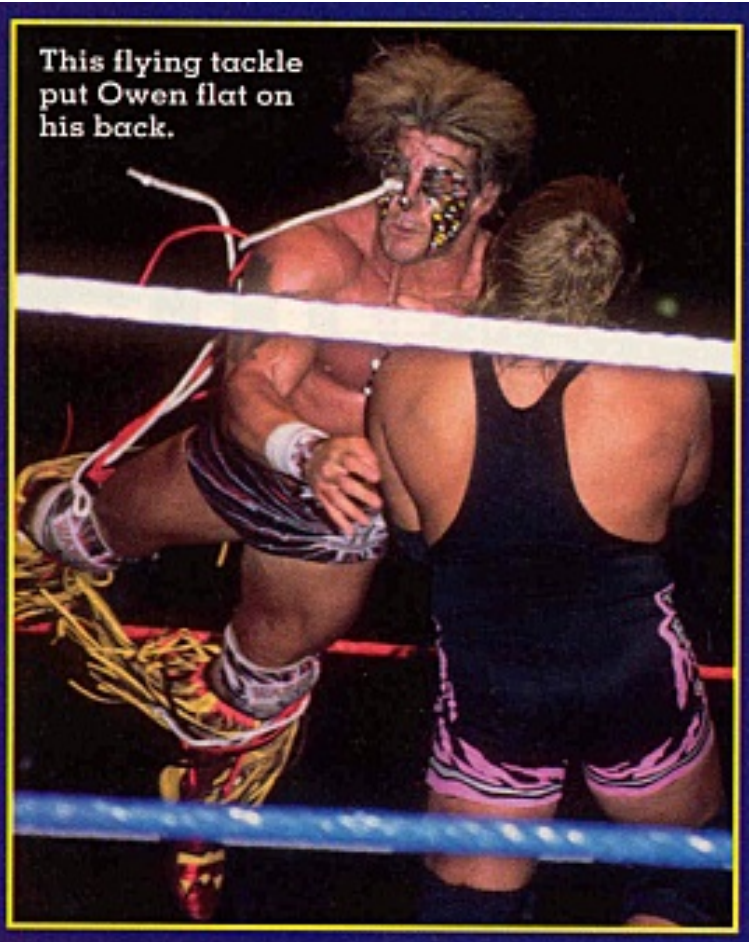
By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

It's the age of the Warrior, the Ultimate Warrior, that is. After nearly a five-year absence the Ultimate Warrior has returned to the WWF, and it looks like the mysterious Warrior has whipped the fans into a frenzy. The Ultimate Warrior returned to the WWF scene on March 31, 1996 at Wrestlemania XII in Anaheim, California, and ever since he has turned the WWF scene upside down.

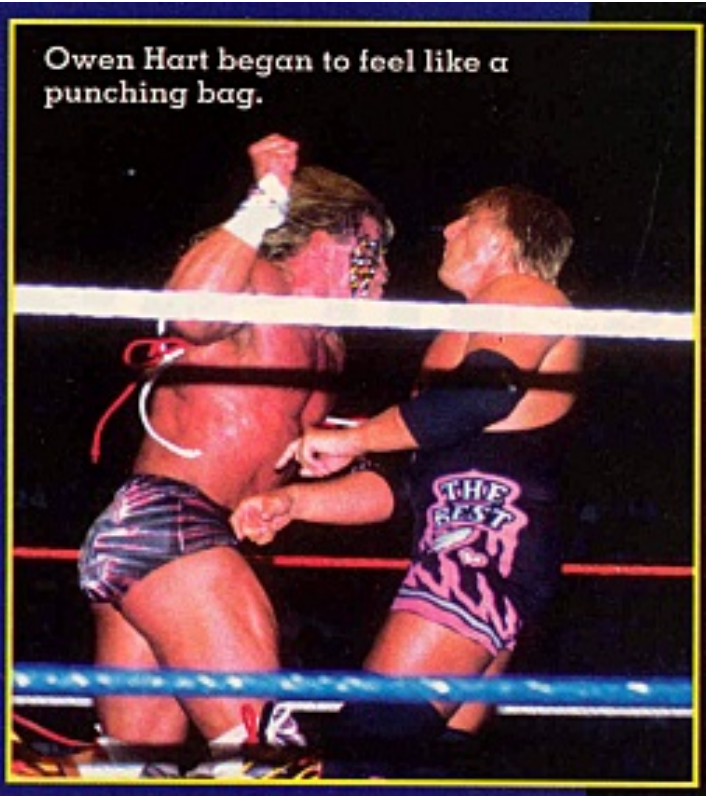
The last time that the Ultimate Warrior wrestled in the WWF, he captured the Intercontinental title on two different occasions. His first title reign began on August 29, 1987 when he defeated the self-proclaimed "greatest Intercontinental champion of all time" the Honky Tonk Man. But, on April 2, 1989, his reign came to a screeching halt at the hands of Ravishing Rick Rude.

The Warrior entered the ring pumped to the max.

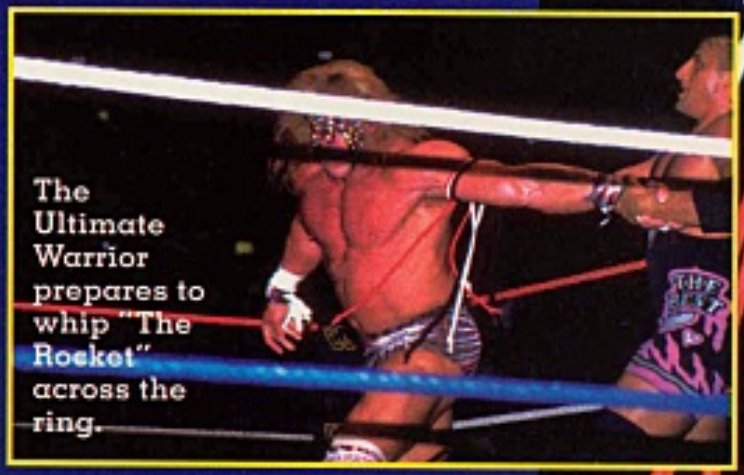




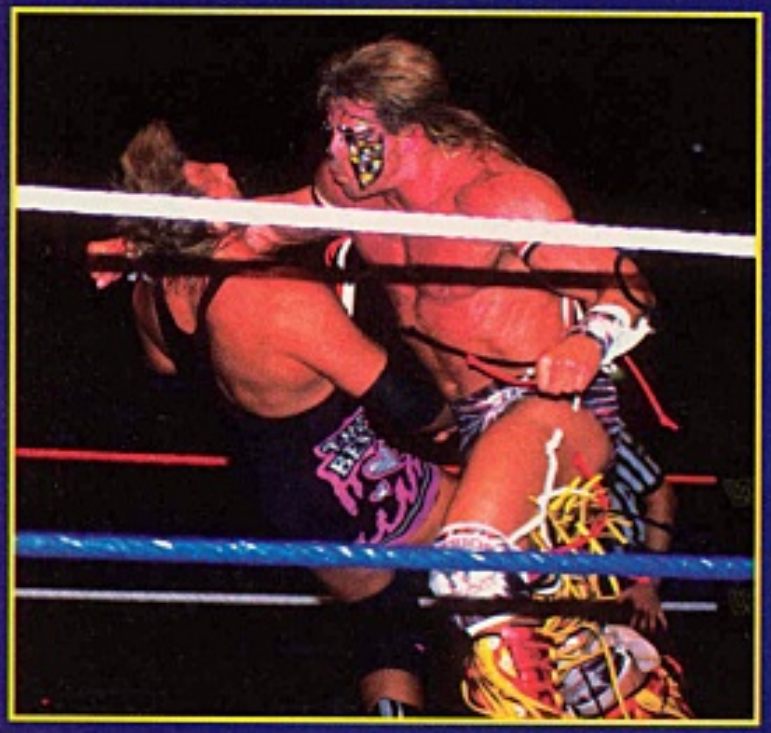
This flying tackle put Owen flat on his back.



Owen Hart began to feel like a punching bag.



The Ultimate Warrior prepares to whip "The Rocket" across the ring.



The Ultimate Warrior nearly takes Hart's head off with a stiff clothesline.

However, on August 28, 1989, the Ultimate Warrior redeemed himself when he regained the belt from Rude in a wild brawl at SummerSlam.

For the next six months the Ultimate Warrior was the talk of the wrestling scene. Finally on April 1, 1990, facing the Almighty Hulk Hogan in front of 60,000 fanatics in the Toronto Sky Dome, the Warrior accomplished the seemingly impossible when he pinned the Mighty Hulkster in center ring to win the prestigious WWF Heavyweight title.

As WWF champion, the Ultimate Warrior faced all challengers, but on January 19, 1991, during the height of the Gulf War, turncoat Sergeant Slaughter with the help of Sheik Adnan, turned the tables on the Ultimate Warrior and defeated him in Miami, Florida, in a match seen on nationwide TV.

After his surprising loss, the Ultimate Warrior abruptly left the WWF and disappeared. Between 1991 and 1996, the Ultimate Warrior wrestled no more than a half a dozen times. During this time the Warrior moved to Scottsdale, Arizona, opened up a gym, and started a corporation called "Ultimate Creations" which produced a comic book on his life, times and philosophy. (Ed. Note: For information about the comic book and other related items call 602-566-4276)

WARRIOR!

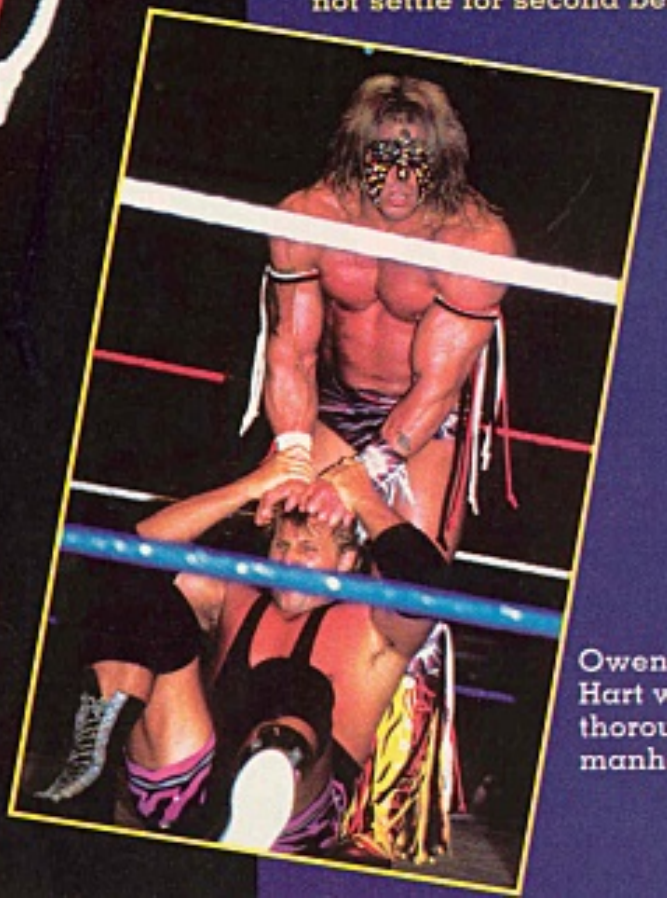
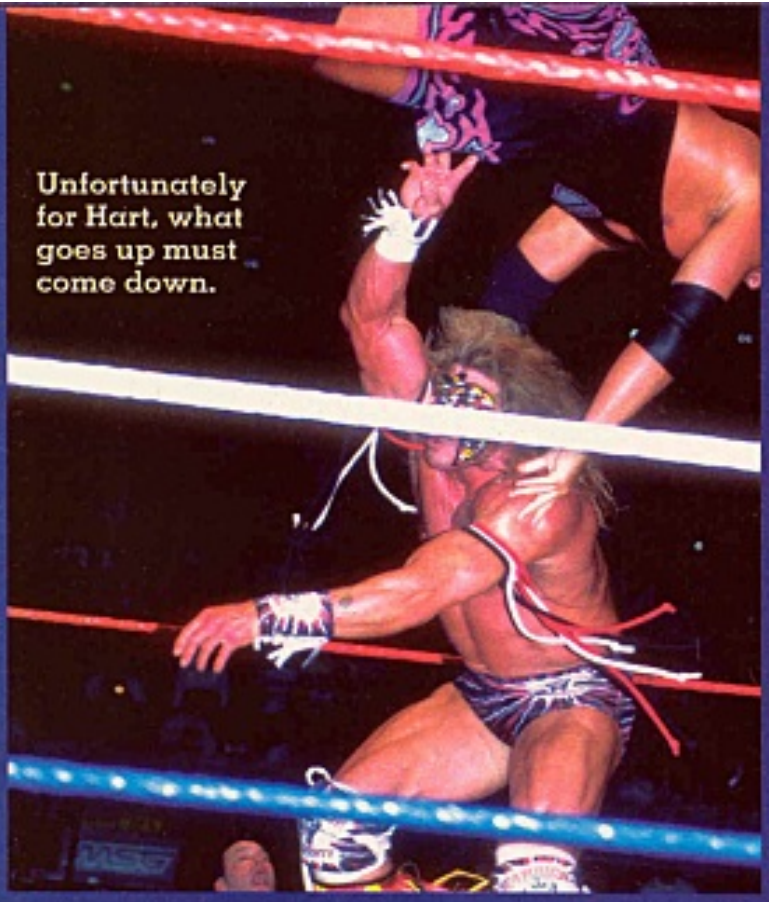
Then, during the Summer of 1995, after being out of the limelight for years, rumors began to spread that the Ultimate Warrior was going to return to the wrestling wars. At first it was believed that the Warrior was going to sign with WCW. In fact the Ultimate Warrior was in California at the Bash At the Beach, but at the last minute contract talks between his representatives and WCW fell apart.

Hearing this, the WWF contacted the Ultimate Warrior about returning to the scene of his greatest triumphs. After weighing his options and waiting for the moon and the stars to be aligned with the planets, the Ultimate Warrior decided that it was astrologically correct to return to the WWF.

What are the Ultimate Warriors intentions this time around, you wonder? For starters the Warrior is not divulging his plans, but it's plain to see that the Ultimate One will not settle for second best.



Owen Hart was thoroughly manhandled.



Unfortunately for Hart, what goes up must come down.

Suplex-city!

Obviously, the Ultimate Warrior is just as muscular as ever.

Right now there are quite a few men waiting for their crack at the Warrior. Among the stars who have targeted the Ultimate Warrior as their main priority are Vader, ManKind, the British Bulldog and Goldust. Then let's not forget the Undertaker. The Ultimate Warrior and the Undertaker had a grueling series of "casket matches" the last time that the Warrior wrestled in the WWF, and they never resolved their differences. If he could successfully defeat these men, then the only man left to face will be WWF champion, Shawn Michaels.

Eventually the paths of Shawn Michaels and the Ultimate Warrior will have to cross. If the Warrior continues to win the way he has since joining the Federation, and Shawn Michaels manages to fight off the challenges of all the top contenders, look for the "Ultimate Confrontation" between the Ultimate Warrior and Shawn Michaels to take place in 1997 at Wrestlemania XIII. But there are still plenty of battles to be waged before this match can materialize.

Right now the Ultimate Warrior is still being very vague and mysterious. He has yet to make any claims or challenges, but he is letting his actions inside the ring speak for themselves. Seeing him in action it's obvious the Ultimate Warrior is still as intense as he ever was, and he has not lost any of the mystique that catapulted him to stardom the last time he wrestled in the WWF. Although we can't shed any light on the Ultimate Warrior's future plans, suffice to say that the man of mystery will definitely liven thing up in the WWF in the months ahead.

ALL HAIL THE GIANT

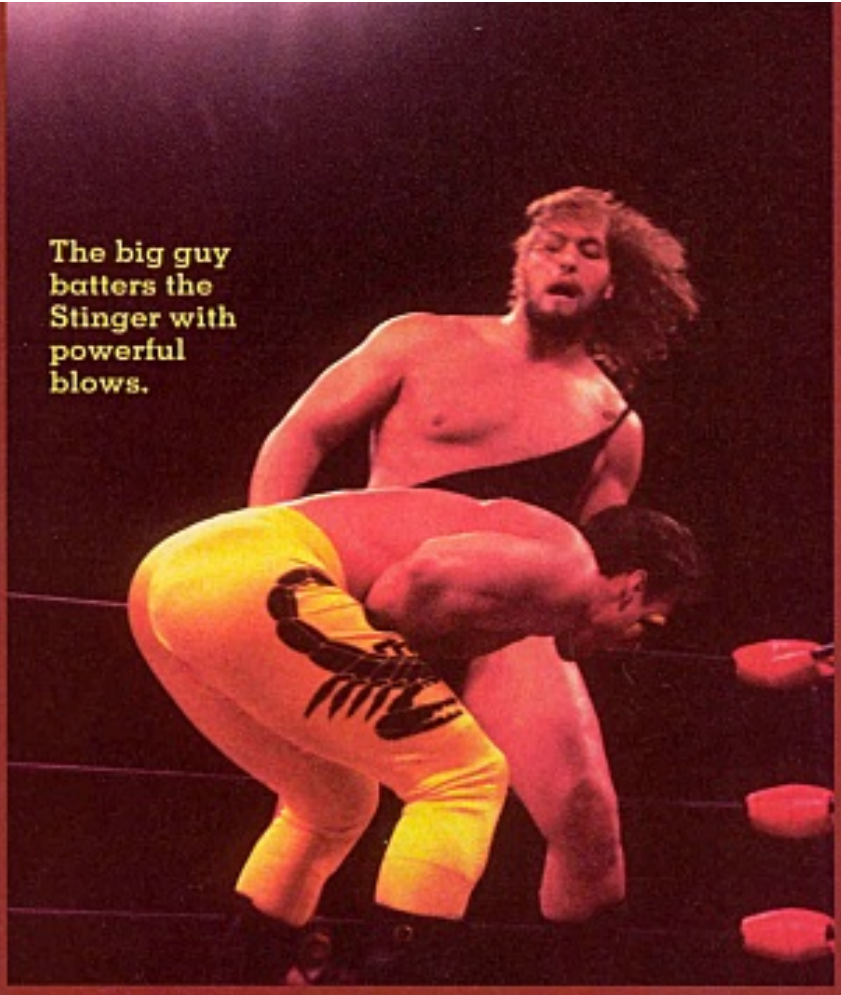
The WCW World Champion!

By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

How good is the Giant, you wonder? Well, the Giant has only been wrestling professionally for a year, and he has already accomplished more in this time than men who have been wrestling professionally their whole life.

Actually, the Giant is an excellent wrestler. Sure, his detractors say that he doesn't know any holds at all; that he merely overpowers his opponents; that he wins by cheating. They can say what they want, but once you step inside that ring your only goal is to win. If it was as easy as some of the Giant's detractors say, then why isn't Lex Luger WCW World champion or Randy Savage or Hulk Hogan for that matter? The truth is that the Giant holds wins over all of these superstars, and they are not getting any younger. They know all that they will ever know about the sport. The Giant, meanwhile,

The Giant is the most physically intimidating champ in WCW history.



The big guy batters the Stinger with powerful blows.

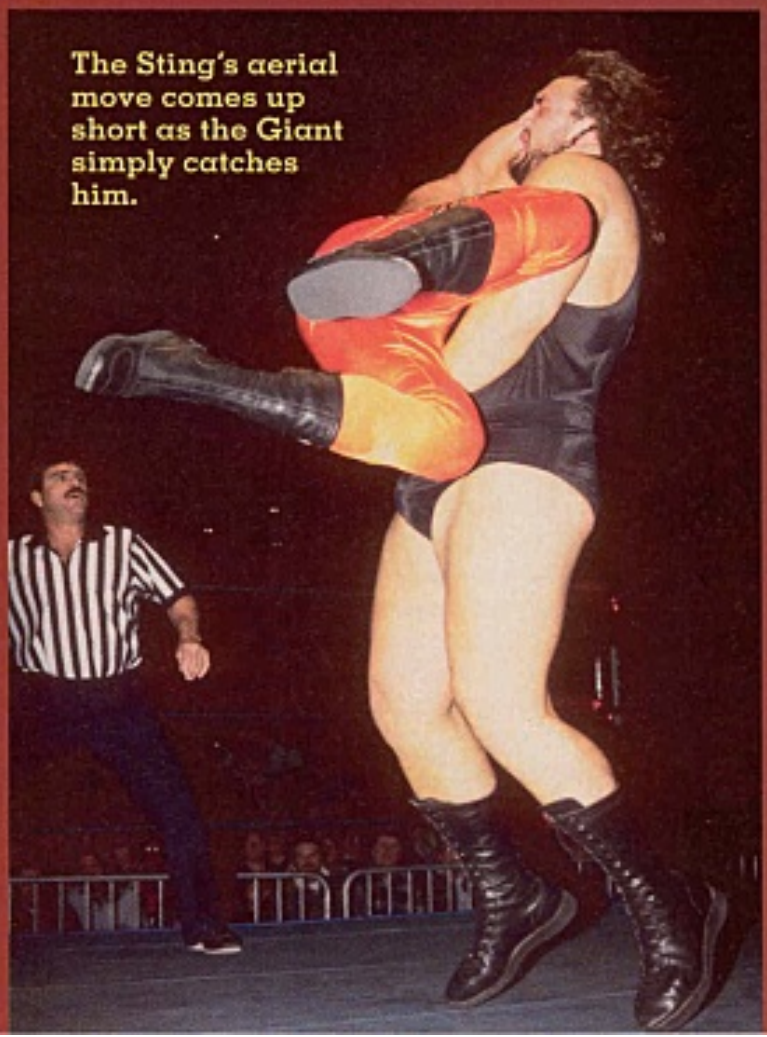
is still learning and he keeps getting better and better all the time.

Facing former WCW champion Sting, the Giant surprised everyone by matching him hold for hold. Then when the match hit the ten-minute mark, the Giant began to really apply the pressure. As good as he is, Sting simply appeared to be out of the Giant's league as the gargantuan champion pinned his challenger after dropping him to the mat with a reverse neck breaker.

Right now the future certainly looks bright for the Giant. No one ever thought that he would be this good, this fast. The Giant has exceeded all expectations and if he continues to progress and learn at the rate that he has, the Giant could become the greatest attraction in the history of the sport.

Right now it is too early to predict that he will surpass all of the accomplishments of the late great, Giant of Giants, Andre, but if everything falls into place, this younger version could do for the Twenty-first Century what Andre did for the Twentieth Century.

The Giant's bear hug squeezes the bejeepers out of Sting.



The Sting's aerial move comes up short as the Giant simply catches him.

Can anyone beat the Giant?

Sting gave it his all, but came up a little short.

The Giant is escorted from the arena by WCW director of security, Doug Dillenger.

The key to beating the Giant is simple: Get him off of his feet!

SO LONG, CACTUS!

HELLO, MANKIND!

Cactus Jack had one last match scheduled before joining the WWF and becoming ManKind—but it was going to be a doozy: a barbed-wire death match in Japan against Kanemura! The ring ropes were removed, and replaced with barbed wire.

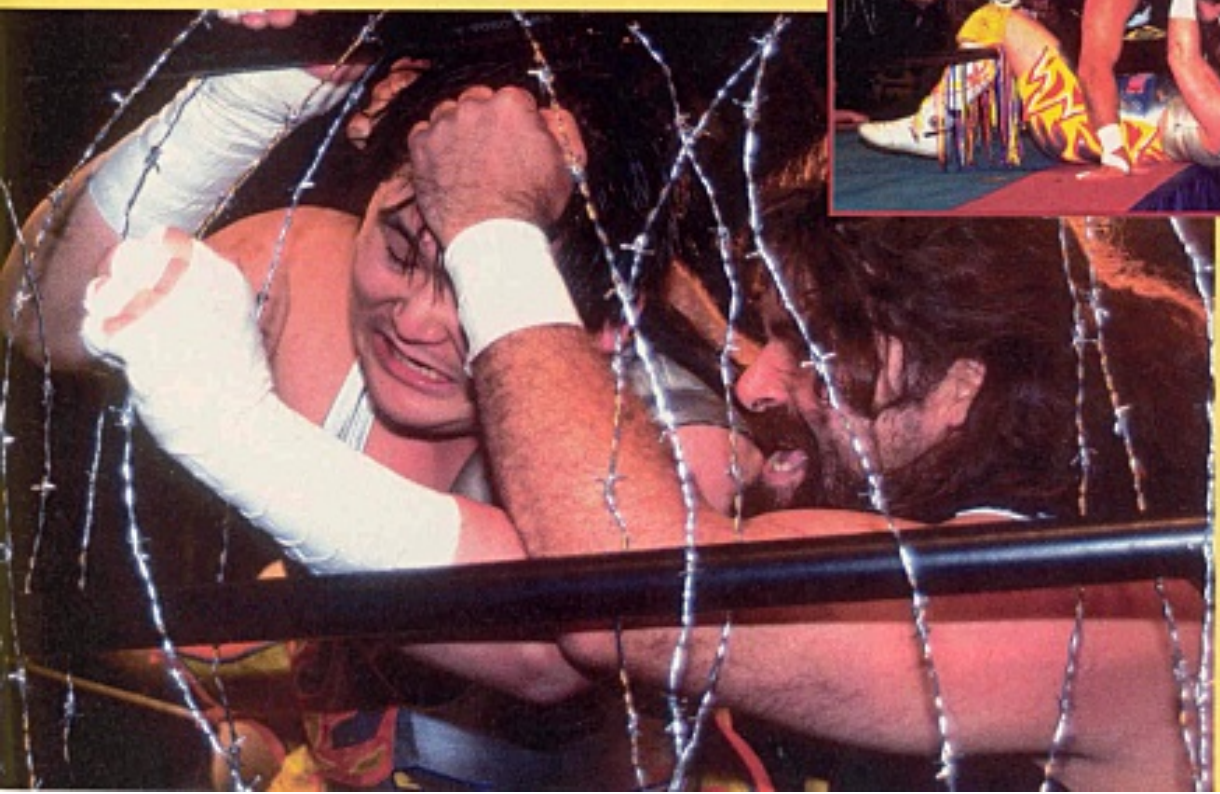
The area outside the ring was filled with stuff that rips your flesh. Just in case anyone came tumbling out of the ring, they would land in hell..

The wrestler we have known as Cactus Jack has now given way to a new persona: ManKind!

It wasn't long before the blood started to flow!

In this match, anything can be used as a weapon.

The men tumble together out of the ring.



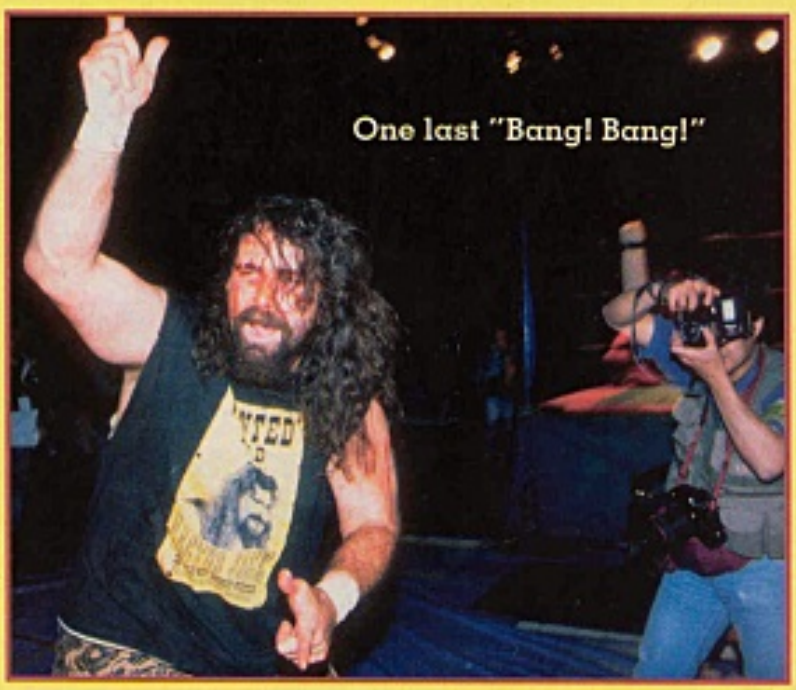
Cactus thrusts Kanemura's face into the razor-sharp barbs!

Kanemura lies in pain.

Cactus Jack said farewell most appropriately: In a bloodbath barbed-wire match!

Cactus got up. His opponent did not.

Cactus Jack acknowledges the crowd as he leaves the arena.



One last "Bang! Bang!"

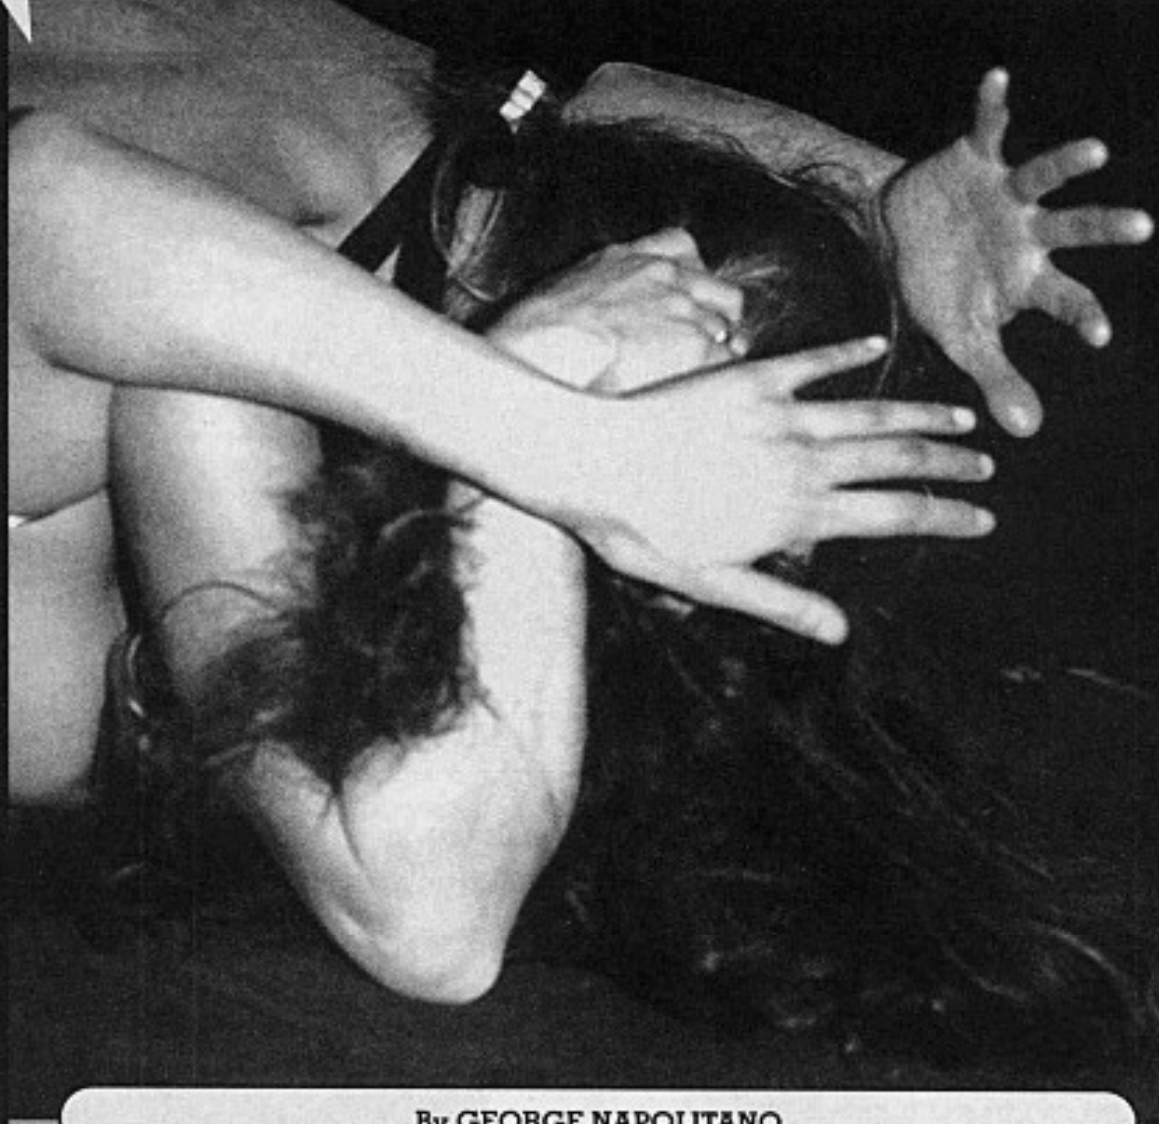
ECW SHOCKER!

THE TOY!

Beulah & Kimono go public!

Tommy Dreamer thought that Beulah was having his baby, but he also knew she was cheating on him. But with who? He demanded to know. Was it Raven? Was it Stevie Richards? Who? Beulah said she would show him who—and she started to kiss Kimono Wannalaya!



By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

Just when you think that you have seen it all in ECW there is another new twist and turn added to the story. This saga involves Beulah, Kimono, Raven and Tommy Dreamer. We can also add in Shane Douglas because he was the one who told the world about this somewhat bizarre episode.

The story begins with Beulah and Raven. At first they were good together, but eventually something soured in their relationship. It finally got to the point where Raven began to beat Beulah senseless. At first Beulah didn't complain about the beating because as they say, "love is blind." Eventually, however, this kind of thing will get to anyone, and one day Beulah reached her breaking point. When this happened Raven's arch enemy, Tommy Dreamer, just so happened to be sitting at a bar when Beulah walked in crying. At first they didn't talk, but then Tommy, being the sweetheart that he is, walked over to console her. One thing led to another, and before they realized what happened Tommy and Beulah were an item.

Raven, however, had no knowledge of the secret rendezvous between his girl and Tommy, but when he found out he went ballistic! Throwing Beulah savagely to the ground, Raven began to stomp and kick his lady. Seeing this, Tommy Dreamer immediately ran to Beulah's defense. After saving her from any further violence, Tommy and Beulah walked off arm in arm.

With Beulah out of the picture, Raven added a new lady to his entourage, the luscious, Kimono Wanalaya. It didn't take Raven long before he began to abuse Kimono just like he abused Beulah.

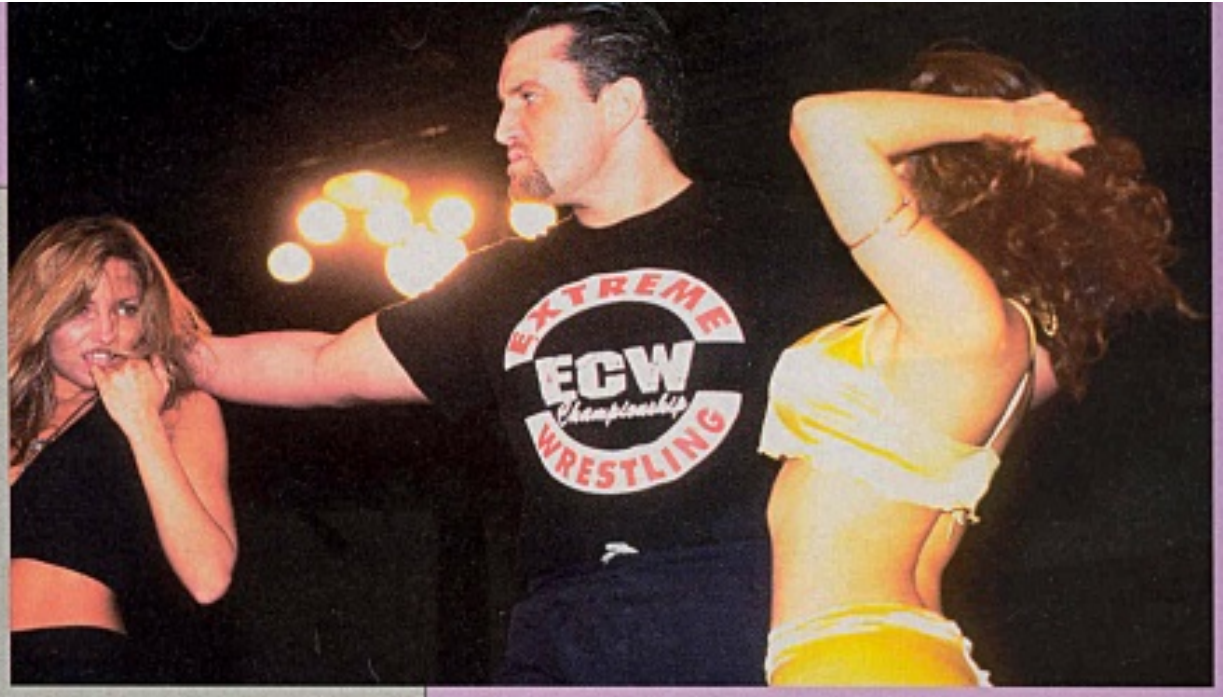
But this time it was Beulah who consoled Kimono. After Kimono received a vicious beating at the hands of Raven, Beulah, seeing the condition that Kimono was in and remembering that she had been in the same predicament not long before, brought Kimono to her room so that she could get escape from Raven's evil clutches. The two ladies talked all night, and when morning came they realized that they were a lot closer than they ever imagined.

Kimono, meanwhile, stayed with Raven just like Beulah had, but eventually she began to spend more and more time with Beulah. Having so much in common, the two ladies hit it off perfectly. One day, however, Shane Douglas spotted Beulah and Kimono together. At first he didn't think anything of it, but when he saw the ladies together day after day he knew something was up. Being the inquisitive guy that he is, Shane confronted the two ladies and they confessed that they had a strong attraction towards each other. Beulah, meanwhile, asked Shane not to tell Tommy anything about this because she didn't want to upset him. Shane swore on a stack of bibles that he wouldn't tell a soul! Of course Shane was lying through his teeth because the first chance that he got, he told the story to the entire world!

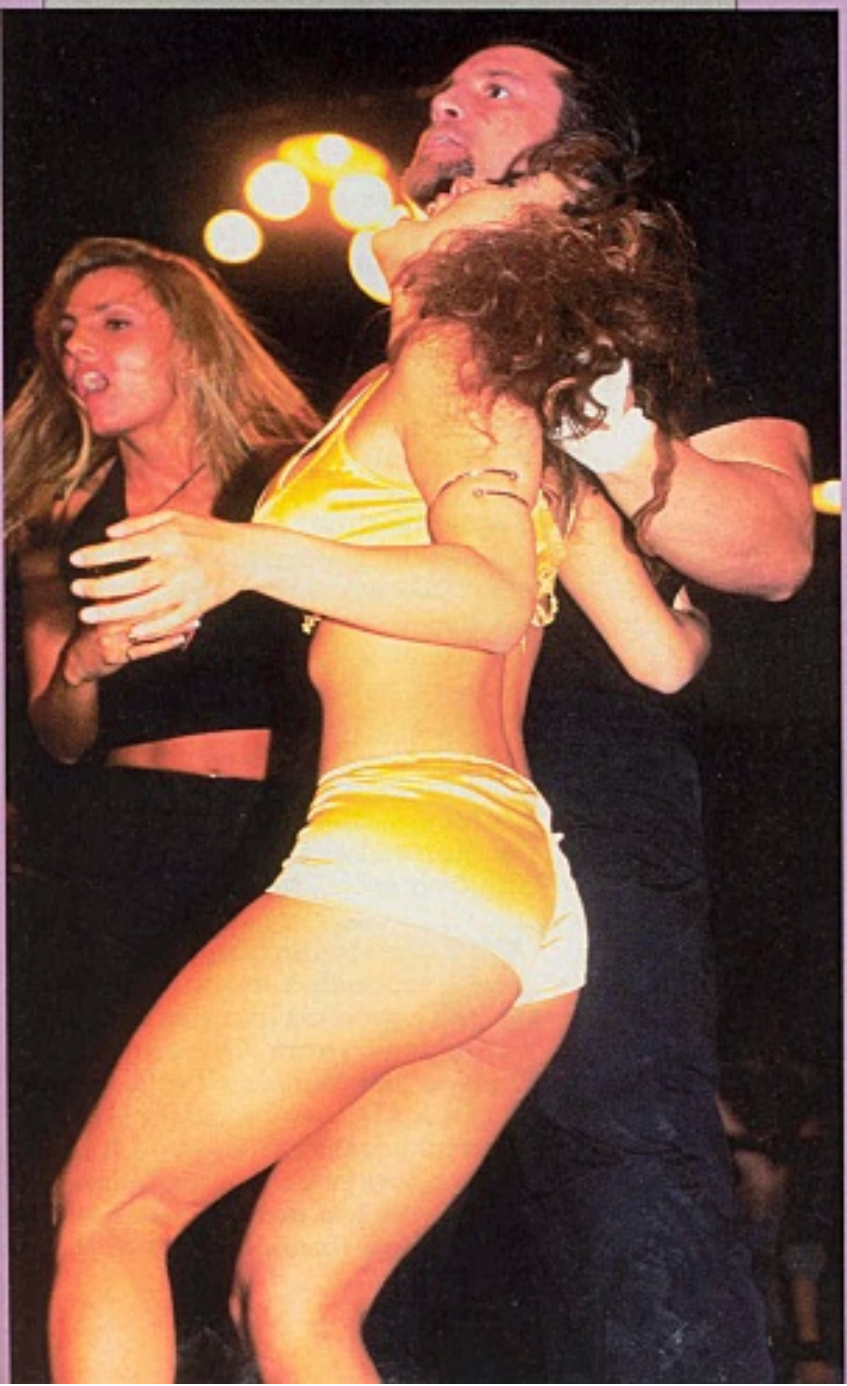
For those who may have missed the episode, the scenario went something like this. Before a match involving Raven and Tommy Dreamer, Shane came into the ring and grabbed the microphone. Shane began his story by telling Tommy, "You may have stolen Raven's girl, but she is cheating on you now." Tommy looked mystified. Grabbing the microphone away from Shane, Tommy demanded that he tell him who it was. Kimono, who had been standing in the ring while this was going on, immediately grabbed the microphone away and stunned everyone in the building when she yelled, "ME!" Hearing this, the arena exploded. No one knew quite what to make of this startling pronouncement. Dreamer, meanwhile, was stunned; Raven was dumbfounded. Finally Beulah walked into the ring and, as she did, the two girls embraced. Seeing this, Tommy grabbed the girls by the hair. After looking at them like he was going to smack them, Dreamer grabbed the microphone and said, "That's OK. I'm hard-core."

Ever since this episode Beulah, Kimono and Tommy have become an inseparable threesome. But as good as it may seem now, this love triangle is doomed to failure. If Tommy isn't very careful, one day he's going to find himself out in the cold searching for a new love. ★

Dreamer was stunned by this, and reached down to pull Beulah off her gorgeous Asian lover.



At first, Dreamer was angry and he held the women apart as he regained his composure.



The kiss had been so wet that Kimono had to wipe her mouth.

Tommy Dreamer decided that, being hardcore, he didn't mind if his two gals had a little fun on their own.

The Godwinns Win, Then Lose

WWF TAG TEAM TITLE!

By GEORGE NAPOLITANO

The Godwinns entered the ring that night as the WWF tag champs. They left the building without the belts.

The Godwinns have always been popular with wrestling's younger fans.

On May 19 the good people of Bitters, Arkansas, had a party in the streets unlike any that they had ever had before when their favorite cousins, Henry O. and Phineas I. Godwinn won the prestigious WWF tag team championships belts! But one week later the celebration came to a screeching halt when the Godwinns lost the coveted WWF tag team title to Billy and Bart Gunn in Florence, South Carolina. Although the Godwinns no longer have the title, the country cousins have vowed that they would bring the belts back to Bitters!

To win the title, the Godwinns defeated Skip and Zip of the Body Donnas in New York's Madison Square Garden in front of 18,000 screaming fans. For the Godwinns their victory at the Garden was a culmination of three grueling months on the road in which the cousins chased the Body Donnas practically all over the world! Their quest took them to Germany, England and even Kuwait in the Middle East, but no matter how hard they tried the Body Donnas always managed to leave the ring still holding on to their tag team title belts.

However, on May 19, with Hillbilly Jim yelling pointers and encouragement from ringside, the Godwinns added their name to the record book when they humiliated Skip and Zip in the Garden.

For the first several minutes of the match it looked like the Body Donnas would win yet again, but soon the momentum began to turn in the Godwinns' favor. Sunny was frantic as Henry and Phineas had the Body Donnas on the verge of defeat. When the seductive Sunny realized that her men were about to lose the match, she decided to take matters into her own hands.

As soon as Phineas executed his "Slop Drop" on Zip, Sunny jumped on the ring apron to distract him just like she did at their match for the title at Wrestlemania. This time, however, Sunny's charm backfired as Phineas planted a big, juicy, wet kiss on Sunny's luscious lips the moment she jumped on the ring apron.

After giving Sunny a long smooch, the pig farmer wiped his lips clean and went back to work. Once again Phineas delivered his Slop Drop on Zip! This time, however, Phineas jumped on Zip and the referee began his count. When the referee's hand hit the mat for the third time, Phineas still wasn't sure what had happened. But when Phineas saw Hillbilly Jim run into the ring smiling from ear to ear, he had an inkling that something good had just happened. Only after Hillbilly Jim hoisted him high in the air and he saw Henry dancing in the ring holding the tag team belts, did Phineas realized that he wasn't dreaming. Yes, the Godwinns, Henry O. and Phineas I., were the new WWF tag team champions!

The Godwinns and Hillbilly Jim plot strategy before their title defense.

Hillbilly Jim is overseeing the Godwinns' careers these days.

Now it was time to party, hillbilly style. With the music reverberating throughout the Garden, Henry, Phineas and Jim began dose-doing all over the Garden ring. Even ring announcer Howard Finkel got into the act, dancing with the Hillbilly cousins! The celebration in center ring went on for several minutes as the cousins happily danced and pranced all around the ring.

Once they made it back to their dressing room, the Godwinns were in a very talkative mood.

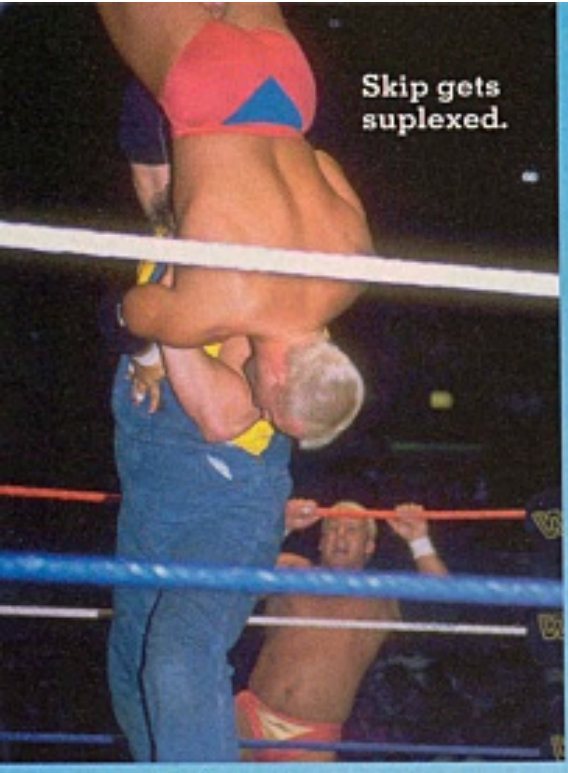
"This is a big day for everyone in Bitters. No one ever figured that we would beat them Body Donnas, but we knew that we could," said Henry. "All along we knew that we were the better team, but we just didn't never have any luck at all against them. But tonight we finally have showed the world that the Godwinns are the best!"

"Hey I'm real happy," added Phineas. "I not only have this here championship belt, but I also got to kiss Sunny right on the lips, too! And, gosh darn, she really is sweet. She kinda reminds me of our cousin Jezebel. And you know how sweet Jezebel is."

"Hey Jim," said Henry, "do you think that this here Sunny has a hankering for Phineas now that she's had a chance to kiss him smack, dab on the lips? Hey, I wouldn't mind her in the family 'cause I can tell that she will be a real, fine kissing cousin! But no matter what happens between her and him from now on we are the champions, and we will do whatever we can to keep these here belts right around our waist."

Although the Godwinns were riding high, the following week in Florence, South Carolina, the team hit rock bottom when they lost their coveted titles to Billy and Bart Gunn.

At the start of the match, unbeknownst to Hillbilly Jim and Henry O., Sunny came out of the dressing room holding Phineas' tag team belt. It seems that Phineas had promised Sunny that she could be their co-manager if they defeated the Body Donnas. And true to his word, Sunny was with Phineas when the Godwinns walked to the ring to wrestle the Gunns.



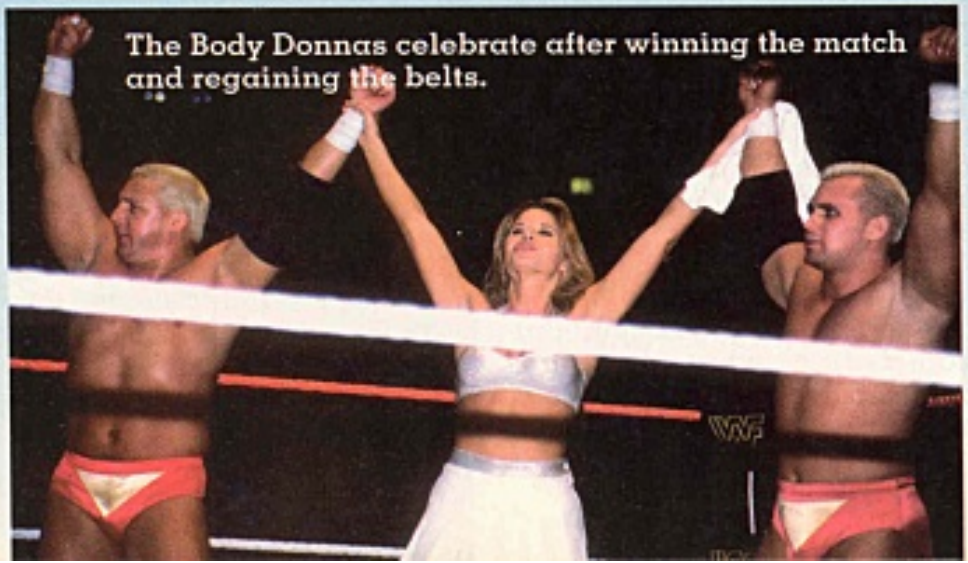
Skip gets suplexed.

During the title match Sunny seemed to be rooting for the Godwinns, but she did give the Gunns several seductive glances during the course of the battle. Finally, Sunny jumped on the ring apron and as soon as she did Billy ran over and kissed her! Seeing this, Phineas was stunned. As he tried to stop Billy from kissing Sunny, Bart ran into the ring and executed a reverse back suplex on the stunned Phineas. In a instant the referee counted and as soon as his hand hit the mat for the third time, Billy and Bart Gunn were the new WWF tag team champions.

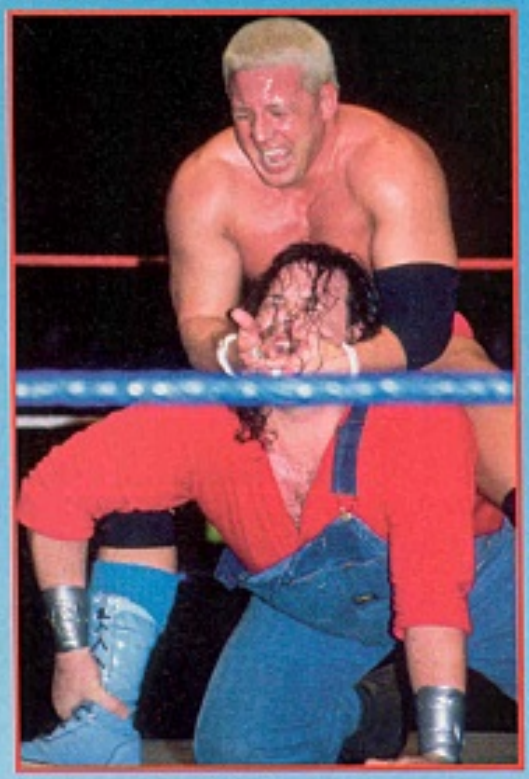
Sunny keeps a close eye on the action.

Henry gives Zip a headache.

A day after the Gunns victory, Sunny, decked out in a pair of cowboy boots and hat, walked to the ring accompanying Billy and Bart Gunn in their match against her former team, the Body Donnas. Although Sunny did not distract the Body Donnas, nor work against the Gunns in this battle, one has to believe that eventually she will turn on the Gunns and help the Body Donnas regain the tag team belts. But that's for another story.



The Body Donnas celebrate after winning the match and regaining the belts.



Zip tries, and fails, to force a submission.

From the sound of Hillbilly Jim's voice it's obvious that the Godwinns are very upset, but Jim has vowed that the Godwinns will regain the tag team title.

"We're mighty upset about what happened, but we will be back on top, " said Jim. "As for Phineas, I've spent a lot of time talking to that boy, but he's under that woman's spell. It's very difficult for a young country boy when a woman like Sunny gets under your skin. Phineas is naive, but he will get over Sunny. I'm sure about that. I don't like what that doggone Sunny did to my boy, but she double crossed her Body Donnas, too. She just an evil woman, but in the end she will get what she deserves."

After riding high for a week the Godwinns are now at a low point in their careers.

But with Hillbilly Jim providing guidance and inspiration, look for Henry O. and Phineas I. to make it back to the top in the very near future. ★
